How does your lifestyle change when you have your first child?

Cupid's Advice:

Your child's needs must come first, and it can be difficult to navigate the changes that come as a result of that. Here are some suggestions:

1. Tone it down: Some things you're used to doing may not be fit to do around a child, so everything you and your partner do is going to have to come into question.

2. Lack of sleep: Children require a lot of attention and you're going to have to sacrifice a lot of precious hours of sleep early on.

3. Home improvement: The room that was going to become your work-out room is going to have to become your baby's bedroom. Deal with it!

After divorce, should you give marriage another shot?

Cupid's Advice:

After a marriage dissolves, you may feel like you never want to get married again. Cupid has some ideas on whether to tie the knot a second time:

1. Second time's a charm: If you've found someone and want to get married again, why not walk down the aisle a second time? Just because it didn't work the first time doesn't mean it won't work the second time with the right person.

2. Don't blame marriage: So you never want to say "I do" again. But remember that the marriage ended because you were with the wrong person: you shouldn't blame the institution.

3. Marriage isn't for everyone: If you feel like you're just not the marrying type, let any future partners know that while you're interested in commitment, you're just not willing to tie the knot.
