Every Royal Divorce Begins with a Royal Kiss

By Dr. Kenneth Ryan

It's a fact. I'm not throwing cold water on the big wedding. It was beautiful, and I wish Kate and William all the best.

I'm just saying you can't judge a relationship by the beauty of the couple or the smiles at the wedding. Kate caught the Prince's attention with her invisible dress, and now it looks like they are living the dream. But they have a tough road ahead. Diana and Fergie's marriages began the same way – just like dozens of U.S. celebrities. As outsiders, there's no way to know if the royal relationship is built on a solid foundation or if it's as flimsy as her see-through wardrobe.

Kate and William are really no different than any other couple getting married, as they have great optimism and excitement about their future together. They've already beat the odds by converting eight years of living together into a marriage, because a University of Denver study found that only one in ten couples who live together are still together five years later.

Celebrities have it tough when it comes to relationships. They're no wiser than you or me, but their every move is monitored and discussed. In fact, they're probably even more confused about relationships than you, because their world is so artificial. Every person a celebrity meets is suspect because so many people are awed by them, in love with them (fantasy) or just to want to exploit them. It's a tangled web of mixed motives when judging any potential suitor, but celebrities have it the worst. Therefore, it makes no sense to look upon the beautiful people with envy or to necessarily emulate their courtship strategies. You might end up emulating a "Bad Romance."

Top 5 Mistakes Women Make in Searching for Their Prince

Don't give up – Some women feel helpless and hopeless because few men have shown interest in them, and there are so many pathetic adolescent men. That said, there are many ways a woman can improve her connections with guys and make herself more appealing. They just need to learn effective communication techniques.

Don't chase guys – Women who come on too strong look desperate and easy. Predatory males look for desperate women, because these women will do almost anything to get them. The good guys out there find desperate women to be less appealing. Learn how to engage men without coming on too strong.

Don't be naïve about men – Too many dangerous men are lurking out there. If a woman does not understand the risks and the huge difference between men and women when it comes to sex and relationships, she will get burned eventually. If most of her guidance for relationships comes from popular media and peers, she is working from a position of ignorance. Movie makers couldn't care less how your life turns out. They just want your $13 movie ticket.

Don't panic – Some women become so fearful that they will never find a guy who loves them that they abandon their convictions and make irrational, dangerous decisions. Some painful effects are immediate, while some might not surface for years.

Don't sleep with the boyfriend – Every woman must make her own decision when it comes to sex, and it's a huge decision. Sex is the most common and most harmful mistake women make in relationships. It may seem romantic or exhilarating, but there are hidden fangs that can cut deep. It causes an avalanche of problems, many that the woman doesn't anticipate.

Does he love you or does he love having sex with you? That's the million dollar question that women routinely get wrong – resulting in shredded female hearts. You can't put a condom on your heart.

It's not easy to navigate the shark-infested waters of the dating world, but if you can follow these basic tips, you shouldn't have to worry about being someone else's prey.

He understands the yearning of most young women to be loved and cherished by a great guy.

Prince William and Kate Middleton Take Engagement Pictures

The paparazzi can take a break, because according to People, the world's most captivating couple, Prince William and Kate Middleton, have sat for their first official photo shoot has an engaged couple. The royal photographer was none other than Mario Testino, a famed fashion photographer who took some of the most memorable pictures of the late Princess Diana, many which appeared in an iconic 1997 issue of Vanity Fair. Mario Testino also photographed the picture perfect couple for both the American and British Vogue.

Where are unique places to have your engagement photos taken?

Cupid's Advice:

Engagement photos are a must once you make the decision to tie the knot with your partner. Cupid has a few creative locations for your pre-wedding shots:

1. Home is where the heart is: It may not be Buckingham Palace, but as a newly engaged couple, making a home and a life together are what you are celebrating. What better place to take your engagement photos than your own backyard?

2. Iconic places: Your engagement is a celebration that should be heard around the world. Venturing to iconic spots like Disney World or the Eiffel Tower is an excellent way to profess your love.

3. Somewhere important to you as a couple: Your engagement photos should express who you are as couple. For example, if you and your partner both enjoy hiking, perhaps you should take your pictures on your favorite hiking trail.

Prince William and Kate Middleton: How Will Their Wedding Compare to Charles and Diana's?

When Prince William marries his fiancée, Kate Middleton, there will be many people who will be comparing his wedding to that of his parents', says People. When Prince Charles married Princess Diana on July 29, 1981, the wedding was viewed by millions around the globe. The bride arrived at St. Paul's Cathedral in a glass coach, dressed in an ivory taffeta and lace gown designed by David and Elizabeth Emanuel. After the ceremony, the royal couple rode in to Buckingham Palace, where they kissed on a balcony in front of thousands of onlookers.

How can you make your wedding stand out?

Cupid's Advice:

- 1. Incorporate unique decor: You may choose to stay away from traditional wedding color schemes, and go for something more unique for your wedding. For example, if you're getting married in the winter, try silver and white instead of warmer hues.
- 2. Be creative with your vows: When you write your vows, try to stay away from clichés. Tell a brief story, or crack a joke. The guests, and your husband, will appreciate the effort.
- 3. Be considerate: While you may have been extremely busy in preparing for your wedding, chances are your maid of honor has been working just as hard. Reward her, and your other bridesmaids, with a personal and creative gift that shows how much you appreciate them.
