

Celebrity Exes: Tyler Cameron Sets the Record Straight on Feelings for 'Bachelorette' Hannah Brown

By Hope Ankney

In celebrity news, The Bachelorette runner-up, Tyler Cameron, has officially set the record straight about where he stands with Hannah Brown. According to EOnline.com, the star popped on Twitter Wednesday to dismiss claims that he had been shading The Bachelorette star. What started with an accidental liking of a tweet shading Brown ended with Cameron writing a series of tweets defending her. Sharing how much respect he had for Brown, he stated "...that girl deserves no shade and nothing but success. She empowers women and deserves all the accolades. She empowers women and created so much conversation on how women should be treated. I am grateful for our time together and all that I learned from her.”

These celebrity exes are keeping their feelings positive all the way around. What do you do if your ex is throwing shade at you?

Cupid's Advice:

When an ex decides to throw shade your way, it triggers an almost immediate emotional reaction. It's hard to ignore the issue and not let it affect you or your behavior. It's even worse if this ex has thrown something like this at you before. But, is it worth giving them the satisfaction of visibly showing how upset it made you? Not at all. Take a look at a few of Cupid's suggestions for relationship advice on how to deal with an ex that is trying to shade you:

1. Delete their social media from your accounts: A big mistake people make is keeping their exes on their social media as friends, followers, etc. It not only keeps a break-up fresh, but it's easy to go on their pages and keep up with their every move. Deleting them as friends or unfollowing their accounts will help you deal with an ex that might cryptically tweet about you or like shady tweets that could be indirectly addressed towards you. In fact, after wiping them away, you might not even know they're doing it anymore.

2. Take a breath: Taking a long, deep breath can do wonders for how you react towards an ex throwing shade. It'll help you balance your composure by trying to keep your mind and body calm. And, if you feel like you need to respond, taking a moment to collect yourself and your thoughts before you reply can do wonders for how the entire situation will go.

3. Surround yourself with positivity: There's nothing worse than being alone or around negativity when an ex decides to throw something your way. The isolation and negative energy will only fuel you to respond with something you'll regret later. When an ex is exhibiting this behavior, try and find friends full of positivity to surround yourself with. They'll bring your mood up while further encouraging you and keeping you motivated to be above the nonsense.

Celebrity News: Cassie Randolph Defends 'Bachelor' Colton Underwood After He's Deemed a Bad Kisser on 'BiP'

By Katie Sotack

Reality TV show Bachelor in Paradise brings all the drama. This Monday, Colton Underwood came under attack for his less than par kissing abilities. Cassie Randolph hopped to her man's defense with a tweeted gif of the two locking lips and the caption, "Kiss me dammit you good kisser you". According to EOnline.com, Derek Peth posed the question to the BiP girls about their worst kissing experiences. Sydney Lotuaco, Caitlin Clemmens, and Tayshia Adams all agreed Underwood's skills could use some work.

In celebrity news, Cassie Randolph is standing by her man's kissing skills. What are some ways to learn how to kiss better?

Cupid's Advice:

The date's going really well, and you can see a future with this one. They're attractive, smart, and hilarious, but then the end of the night comes. They lean in for you, and you find that they kiss with all tongue and teeth. Fear not! All that first date potential isn't wasted on your ideal partner's worst kiss. Here are some ways to improve:

1. Take cues: Your partner will kiss how they want to be kissed. Note the subtle movements of their lips and tongue and whether they apply a lot of pressure or a delicate touch. Take cues from their style, body language, and sounds on whether or not you could up your game.

2. Use bodies: A great kiss should inspire your whole body, not just your mouth. Use your physical being to your advantage by working in hands. Grip their waist, tangled their hair, cup their face, etc. There's a million and one ways to set your partner's nerve endings on fire, the lips are only one aspect.

3. Avoid repetition: It may be tempting to stay in on place when your nervous for a kiss, but make sure to spice it up. Move your head and hands to create an unexpected experience for your partner. Great kisses are all about surprises.

Celebrity Wedding: 'Bachelorette' JoJo Fletcher & Jordan Rodgers Get Engaged ... Again

By Katie Sotack

Almost a year after his initial proposal on The Bachelorette, Jordan Rodgers proposed to JoJo Fletcher all over again. The celebrity news was revealed on Rodgers' Instagram on Saturday, featuring a photo of the couple showing off Fletcher's new rock. The caption went on to explain that their first proposal for the show was real and meant the world to both of them. However, as they began planning their wedding, they wanted to do it their own way, in private. Cue proposal number two!

Perhaps there will be a celebrity wedding on the horizon finally for this Bachelorette couple. What are some ways to make your partner feel special during a long engagement?

Cupid's Advice:

Wedding bells are in your future, but the road to the chapel is a long one. Fear not! Long engagements are challenging, but there are ways to reassure your partner and reaffirm your love during the process.:

1. Remember the date: Commit to small gestures that remind your partner you are excited for your nuptials, however far down the line they may be. Write the date with doodled hearts on your fridge's whiteboard, or leave your partner a sticky note reading "one year to go!" However you remind your significant other of your excitement, make it a fun, any day surprise.

2. Keep the romance going: Wedding planning can throw your brain into overdrive. While the details may be tempting to take over your life (and all your conversations), share a world with your partner outside of your wedding. Find a balance between excitement for your wedding and commitment to your love life by scheduling date nights where wedding talk is off the table.

3. Take small steps: Do not let your engagement drag without any planning whatsoever. Even if your wedding is set years down the line, make yourself a schedule. Try to settle at least one detail a month so that both you and your partner feel you're moving forward.

Celebrity News: 'BiP' Star Blake Horstmann Releases Texts with Caelynn Miller-Keyes After Intimate Night

By Ashley Johnson

Bachelor in Paradise star Blake Horstmann has proven that he is not afraid to share the most intimate details of his romantic life with the world. According to UsMagazine.com, just a few days ago, the reality TV star revealed scandalous text messages sent from Caelynn Miller-Keyes on his Instagram story and has gotten backlash ever since.

In celebrity news, things are being clarified after the drama with Blake and Caelynn was shown on the first episode of Bachelor in Paradise. What are some reasons to keep your intimate life private?

Cupid's Advice:

Not everyone has the luxury of keeping their relationships private (especially celebrity couples), but if you do have the choice, Cupid has some relationship advice on reasons to keep your intimate life private, unlike Blake Horstmann and Caelynn Miller-Keyes:

1. Too many opinions: Everyone is going to have an opinion about your relationship whether you like it or not. A lot of those opinions will be unsolicited and can be detrimental to your relationship if you dwell on them. However many opinions people may share on the Internet or social media, no one will ever know the facts of the relationship simply because they are not in it, only you and your partner are.

Related Link: Celebrity News: Cardi B Gets New Tattoo of Husband Offset's Name

2. Social pressure: Social media allows you to share the version of yourself you want to share with the public, and never all versions of yourself. This being said, your followers and subscribers only see one version of your relationship with your partner, which can put pressure on you to only show the best parts of your relationship rather than the worst. Having to live up to a certain standard for your relationship can be exhausting and strain your relationship if you start doing more things to look happy in your relationship and less things to be happy in your relationship. It's more important to be present in your relationship rather than get lost in your relationship's social media presence.

Related Link: Celebrity Couple News: Scott Disick Is 'Really Happy' Kylie Jenner Is Close to Girlfriend Sofia Richie

3. Safety: By making your relationship public, you could be letting in the wrong people. Hollywood relationships are often subject to aggressive paparazzi and stalkers. While you may not necessarily be swarmed by paparazzi everyday, you are still subject to others having too many intimate details about your relationship. This includes jealous exes, or other people who may not wish the best for you and your partner. When the wrong people know the whereabouts of you and your partner at all times, it only gives them the opportunity to troll you, making you feel the opposite of secure in your relationship, and at times unsafe.

Celebrity News: 'Bachelorette' Hannah Brown Says 'Thank You, Next' to Questions about Tyler Cameron & Gigi Hadid

By Ashley Johnson

In a celebrity interview with UsMagazine.com, Hannah Brown made it clear that she is ready to take on life as a single woman after her celebrity break-up with Tyler Cameron. The reality TV star says she is focused on exploring her new opportunities as a single woman and is ready to move forward from The Bachelorette with or without a man.

In celebrity news, Hannah isn't letting anyone draw her into talks surrounding Tyler Cameron's dating life. What are some ways to move on when you see your ex moving on?

Cupid's Advice:

While all celebrity relationships do not last, the relationship you have with yourself does. We are rooting for

Hannah in her new journey! Cupid has some advice on how to move on from an ex like Hannah Brown and many other single celebrities:

1. Focus on yourself: Self-care is always the best way to go. When we take care of ourselves and give ourselves all the love and affection for a change, we realize just how much we needed it and realize that self love is enough. Focusing on yourself and taking the time to heal on your own can help you rediscover yourself and learn more about who you are. You can learn more about your likes, dislikes, and everything in between.

Related Link: Celebrity News: Shia Lebeouf and FKA Twig's Relationship Is On Hold

2. Enjoy your hobbies and friends: Just taking the time to do things you enjoy again can remind you what you really value in life. You can now focus all your time and energy on everything you have ever wanted to do, whether it be painting, going to concerts, traveling the world, or spending more time with friends. Friends are there for you when you need them the most. They can help distract you from your ex and past relationship and can be a shoulder to lean on when you just need to vent.

Related Link: Celebrity Break-Up: Bradley Cooper Enjoys a Boys' Night in L.A. After Irina Shayk Split

3. Take a break from social media: Focusing on yourself means you can't have any distractions. Social media is the easiest way to stay up to date with your friends, and unfortunately, your ex. With just one click you can get lost in your ex's feed. Being single means you now have time to focus on yourself, not your ex and their whereabouts. Embrace the distance from your ex... this may even mean blocking or unfollowing them on all social media for the time being.

Celebrity News: Kendall Jenner & A$AP Rocky Attend Sunday Service After He's Released from Prison

By Ashley Johnson

In celebrity news, upon his return to the U.S. on Saturday morning, August 3, A$AP Rocky was photographed exiting his private jet and wearing a big smile (and of course, his classic designer babushka in true celebrity style). According to UsMagazine.com, the rapper had spent one month behind Swedish bars before being released Friday, August 2. Just two days later, he was filmed wearing the same smile, as he chatted it up with former flame and reality TV star Kendall Jenner while attending Kanye West's weekly Sunday Service.

In celebrity news, Kendall Jenner and A$AP Rocky wasted no time getting together after he was released from prison. What are some ways to support your partner after a traumatic event?

Cupid's Advice:

While the celebrity exes spent no time getting reacquainted with each other after Rocky's release from prison, Cupid has some advice on how to navigate a relationship and support your partner after a traumatic event:

1. Be communicative with each other: Communication is important, especially if the one you love has been gone for months. In order to rebuild the relationship and understand parts of your partner's experience you may not be all that familiar with, having open and honest conversations is helpful. Most of the time, survivors of trauma have a lot on their mind and just need someone to talk to in a safe space without judgment.

2. Comfort your partner: Sometimes when words fail, physical touch can do wonders. Whether you comfort your partner by kissing them on the forehead or tightly embracing them, you are providing a safe and supportive environment for them. Words are not always enough, but just your presence can be appreciated and let your partner know that you are there for them.

3. Understand triggers: Depending on the trauma, survivors may have a list of triggers, including loud noises, dark places, and confined spaces. Triggers can suddenly recreate trauma for your partner and make them relive an experience they would rather not relive. By knowing your partner's triggers you can help make them feel safe and avoid exposure to their certain triggers.

Celebrity News: Hannah Brown's 'Bachelorette' Runner-Up Goes On Date with Gigi Hadid Days After Spending Night with Hannah

By Ashley Johnson

In each and every season of The Bachelorette, former bachelors and bachelorettes alike (along with a few athletes) inevitably make their highly anticipated return to the show to drop some relationship truth. Whether it's Ben Higgins having a one-on-one with Colton Underwood or Hannah Brown sitting court-side with Jaylen Brown, the singles are coached on "finding the one" and what to look for in a significant other. However, this is no simple task and may include a lot of casual dating before getting serious with anybody and making that commitment. According to UsMagazine.com, on Sunday, August 4, in celebrity news, Tyler Cameron and Gigi Hadid were spotted together on what appeared to be their first date night ever in NYC, just two days after The Bachelorette runner-up was seen leaving Hannah Brown's apartment in L.A.

In celebrity news, Tyler Cameron isn't committed to Hannah and is dating around. What are some things to be careful about when you're dating around?

Cupid's Advice:

While Tyler seems to have been getting cozy with more than one woman (Gigi Hadid being one of them) and seems to be living a true bachelor life outside of reality TV, Cupid has some dating advice on how to date around like the model himself and other single celebrities:

1. Be transparent: Being transparent means being truthful and being clear about your intentions. Sometimes being honest with people can be difficult, but you are not going to get what you want out of any relationship by hiding your true feelings. Relationships only work when the people involved are on the same page and have both of their wants and needs met.

2. Have patience: As we know from many years of The Bachelor and Bachelorette, you do not just fall in love on the first date (or maybe you do), and dating is a process. It is highly unlikely you are going to commit to one person after just one date, and you may find yourself going on numerous dates with numerous people until you find what you are looking for, and that is okay. You just have to be patient!

3. Take the time to discover yourself: Use the opportunity of getting to know various new people to also get to know more about yourself. By intimately being exposed to all different personalities and behaviors, you are going to find some that you absolutely love, and others that you absolutely cannot stand. Dating different people only reaffirms your own wants and needs, and helps you figure out what you want more of (or less of) in life.

New Celebrity Couple? 'Bachelorette' Hannah Brown Gushes Over Tyler Cameron After Finale

By Bonnie Griffin

In the latest celebrity news, Bachelorette Hannah Brown gushed over Tyler Cameron on Jimmy Kimmel Live. According to UsMagazine.com, Brown said, “he is pretty great” referring to Cameron. After a devastating break up with Jed Wyatt, it looks like Brown might be ready to give her ex, Cameron, another shot at a relationship.

With one break-up comes a new beginning for this soon-to-be celebrity couple. What are some ways to know whether to give your ex a second chance?

Cupid's Advice:

For these reality tv stars, it is starting to look like they are going to be giving their romance a second chance.

Sometimes time and space gives us a new perspective and makes us realize what we lost. Cupid has some advice to help you know when to give your ex a second chance:

1. You can see yourself with them as a part of your future:

When you think about your ex do you picture the two of you together? Can you imagine what your life would be like as a couple in the future? These are signs you might want to give your ex a second chance. If you can honestly see them as your partner for life it is worth giving the relationship another shot.

2. You're happier with them: When you spend time with your ex are you happier than you are with anyone else? And being with them makes you happier than being single. Then give them a second chance. A little time apart to realize what you loved about them may be all you needed to make your relationship a lasting love.

3. They made an effort to change: Consider why you broke up in the first place. Maybe they had a fear of commitment or they liked to party too much. If you see that they've made a solid effort and have changed those bad habits then a second chance at a relationship might be worth a shot.

Celebrity News : 'Bachelorette' Hannah Brown Speaks Out About Jed After Finale

By Bonnie Griffin

In the latest celebrity news, Bachelorette Hannah Brown ended her engagement to Jed Wyatt. Five weeks after their engagement, Brown was heartbroken to find out that her relationship with Wyatt began with lies when she discovered he had a girlfriend when he first entered the show. According to People.com, Brown said finding out Wyatt hadn't been honest was "heartbreaking" and that by being dishonest "he hurt [her] worse than anybody else did."

In celebrity news, Hannah wasn't willing to settle once she found out Jed had been dishonest with her. What are some ways to know your partner is lying to you?

Cupid's Advice:

For these reality tv stars, happy ever after is no longer in their future. Wyatt's dishonesty broke Brown's heart and left her unable to forgive him for the hurt he caused her. It is never good when you find out that someone you love has lied to you. Cupid has some advice to help you know when your partner is lying to you:

1. They say they never lie: Anyone who tells you that they never lie is lying to you. It is common for everyone to tell little white lies from time to time. Sometimes these kind of lies are okay because they are meant to protect someone's feelings or something of that nature. Getting caught in a small lie like that wouldn't have any real consequences. We all tell these kinds of lies, so an honest partner would have no reason to insist they never lie at all.

Related Link: Celebrity News: 'Bachelorette' Hannah Brown Releases Intimate Details in Front of Peter's Mom!

2. Lack of eye contact: One of the tell-tale signs of lying that is upheld as true by science is when someone refuses to make eye contact. If your partner is normally someone who makes eye contact with you when you're talking, and now they are avoiding that eye contact it is a good indicator they aren't being honest about something.

Related Link: Celebrity Wedding: 'Vanderpump Rules' Stars Tom Schwartz & Katie Maloney Get Official Marriage License in Vegas 2 Years After Wedding

3. They accuse you of lying: One of the oldest tricks in the books is to try to get the focus off them by pointing their finger at you. Your partner might accuse you of lying or cheating out of the blue. This blame game is often a way to try to justify their own dishonest actions.

What are some things you look for if you think your partner is being dishonest? Let us know your thoughts in the comments below.

Celebrity News: 'Bachelorette' Hannah Brown Releases Intimate Details in Front of Peter's Mom!

By Katie Sotack

The infamous Bachelorette windmill sex scene between Hannah and Peter was one of the most talked about moments this season. But according to UsMagazine.com, Hannah fudged the details. When facing off with Luke Parker, The Bachelorette confessed to having sex with Peter twice at the mill, yet apparently it was four times! Hannah announced this proudly in front of the studio audience, which included Peter's family. Still, despite (or maybe because of) the scandalous details, Peter's family could not have looked prouder as the audience gave the pair a standing ovation.

In celebrity news, Hannah Brown didn't hold any details back while talking to Peter on a recent episode of The Bachelorette. What are some benefits to being open about intimacy?

Cupid's Advice:

In our Puritan-grown culture, it's not wildly accepted to talk about intimacy in public. However, American youth culture is shifting to see the perks in being open and honest about intimacy. Here's how talking about intimacy can benefit yourself and others:

1. Normalization: Talking about intimacy normalizes said acts of intimacy. America's sensationalized media presents idealistic versions of sex and love, which do not match up with reality. With this idealized standard we rarely see an accurate representation of our own intimacy. The girl and guy are perfect, never having bad sex or weird sex. Not to mention a lack non-heteronormative relationships depicting physical love. Talking about sex and the intimate acts surrounding it can ease the tension our culture feels around sexual 'imperfections' which fall short of idealistic standards.

Related Link: Celebrity News: Ben Higgins Says 'Bachelorette' Hannah Brown's Sex Confessions Are 'Confusing'

2. Ease the guilt: There's a famous Sex In The City episode where Miranda takes a lover who's so petrified of sex being a sin, that after every time they've been physical he must run to shower. Yeah, this was filmed in the '90s, but times haven't changed too much. Bachelorette Hannah Brown was thoroughly slut shamed by contestant Luke P. for enjoying sex with men she'd fallen in love with. By speaking out about about her experience at the windmill while in a supportive environment she was championed for something that had once penalized her.

3. Better sex: As sexologist Lindsey Doe likes to point out sex and sexuality are never one size fits all. But that's the way our culture likes to think about it, so partner's have been conditioned to fall short of our unique needs. Being open about your likes, dislikes, and experiences will not only work like a handbook for better sex but help to foster emotional intimacy between you and your partner(s).

Celebrity Wedding: 'Vanderpump Rules' Stars Tom Schwartz & Katie Maloney Get Official Marriage License in Vegas 2 Years After Wedding

By Katie Sotack

Vanderpump Rules stars Katie Maloney and Tom Schwartz will be making their celebrity wedding official! Two years after their big wedding celebration, which was televised on their reality show, 'N Sync's Lance Bass revealed that the marriage did not have an official license. According to EOnline.com, the couple failed to properly fill out the required paperwork. Obtaining the license now suggests that Maloney and Schwartz will have a redo wedding any day now, though the plans are still hush-hush.

In celebrity wedding news, it looks like Tom and Katie will be officially tying the knot, as it was recently revealed that they didn't file appropriate paperwork after their wedding two years ago. What are some must-do's before your wedding day?

Cupid's Advice:

Congrats, you're engaged! Among the excitement as you rush to the alter, planning every last detail can feel like a juggling act. Here are some must haves before you say 'I do'.

1. The License: Learn your lesson from Tom and Katie and get a license. This is perhaps the most essential piece to a successful wedding, considering it confirms the actual marriage. If you don't know where to start, call or visit your local county clerk's office. Remember that the license will take some time to be processed.

2. Meet the officiant: Prior to the wedding, plan a meeting with your officiant. This will give you time to go over the ceremony and inform the officiant of your desires. The added benefit of meeting beforehand is that if your officiant is a regular at performing weddings (ie: priest, rabbi, officer of the court) they'll know the official documents you'll need to send in as well.

3. Vendors: About two months before the wedding, touch base with your vendors again. Reaffirm that they will be at the agreed location at the correct time and presenting the correct menu. This is also a great time to get any questions you or they have answered.

Celebrity News: 'Bachelorette' Hannah Brown Confronts Luke P. at 'Men Tell All'

By Katie Sotack

This season's Bachelorette has been full of stories about Luke

Parker. Yet, on Monday, Hannah Brown took the celebrity breakup narrative back and stood against Luke P's red flag behavior. According to UsMagazine.com, Hannah said she was "over being slut-shamed" and apologized to Bachelor fans for keeping Parker's face on their TVs for so long. Fellow contestants joined Hannah's #LukePIsOverParty with Devin coming on stage to confront Luke's need to control women to feel better about himself. As for Luke, he mostly minced words and contradicted himself in between commercial breaks.

In celebrity news, Bachelorette Hannah Brown faced Luke Parker after the explosive end to their relationship. What are some ways to get closure after a relationship ends?

Cupid's Advice:

At the end of the relationship, there are steps to be taken to ease the painful process. Instead of wondering "what if?" find ways to deal with your feelings and move on. Here are relationship tips to find closure:

1. Wallow: In the wake of your devastating breakup give yourself permission to wallow for an allotted time period. Take Friday off and watch your favorite movies while binging on ice cream. Or, call up your mom and talk about what happened. Allow yourself to feel all the confusing and painful emotions that come with ending a relationship so that you can make peace inside your head.

Related Link: Celebrity News: Ben Higgins Says 'Bachelorette' Hannah Brown's Sex Confessions Are 'Confusing'

2. Seek socialization: After your weekend of wallowing, call your friends and go outside. Being around outside energy will widened your perspective and help you to see the world outside of your old relationship. Whether you want to go dancing or browse the local bookstore absorb the positive vibes around you and be mindful of the now.

3. Talk to your ex: When the time comes, speak to your ex to find closure. This step should only be taken after you've processed the bulk of your emotions and can be trusted to converse calmly without blame or aggression. Meet for coffee or somewhere else public to discuss the demise of your situation. Go in knowing that the goal is not to get your relationship back but rather to hear out the other person and grow from their experience with you.

Celebrity News: Tyler C.'s Fantasy Suite Speech Made Him a 'Bachelorette' Fan Favorite

By Bonnie Griffin

In the latest reality tv celebrity news, the hearts of The Bachelorette's viewers have been taken by Tyler C. On the most recent episode, Hannah Brown revealed to Tyler that despite their intense physical chemistry, she wanted to put sex on hold while they built a stronger emotional bond. Tyler's response, according to EOnline.com, was what stole fans' hearts, saying, "I would never press you or pressure you at all." Tyler clearly knows how to show a lady respect.

In celebrity news, Tyler C. stole the hearts of Bachelor Nation. What are some ways to know your partner respects you?

Cupid's Advice:

The interaction between these reality tv stars shows us that chivalry is not dead, and respect is something everyone should expect from their partner. Cupid has some advice on ways to know your partner respects you:

1. They really listen to you: One great sign of respect is having a partner who listens to you. They don't just hear what you say but are actively engaged in listening when you talk and they carefully respond after taking time to think things through.

Celebrity News: 'Bachelorette' Hannah Brown's Sexy Windmill Scene Revealed

By Bonnie Griffin

In the latest celebrity news, Bachelorette Hannah Brown's awaited sexy windmill scene aired. Fans were surprised to learn that the guy who'd landed in the windmill with Brown was Peter Weber and not Jed Wyatt. The unique location of the windmill scene made it clear who Brown had been referring to with her earlier statements, and according to UsMagazine.com, Brown confirmed she slept with Weber twice as he bragged the next morning, "We are one now."

In celebrity news, the now-infamous windmill scene on the most recent episode of The Bachelorette didn't feature who everyone expected. What are some ways to spice up your love life?

Cupid's Advice:

For these reality tv stars, a windmill added some spice to their romantic tryst. Whether it is location or just trying something new, everyone likes to spice things up in the bedroom from time to time. Cupid has some advice to keep the spice in your love life:

1. Change the scene: Every romantic encounter doesn't have to happen in the bedroom. Try moving things to the living room in front of the fireplace when it is cold out. Or you could just set the scene for romance with candles and romantic music.

According to UsMagazine.com, Brown was not pleased with Parker's remarks in regards to her sleeping with guys on the show, saying to him, "My husband would never say what you've said to me." Brown admits to having some fun on the show, and she does not regret her decisions, but she's clearly not going to listen to negative remarks about her sex life without sticking up for herself. This is one celebrity reality tv star who knows how to stand up for herself.

In celebrity news, Bachelorette Hannah Brown admitted to some hanky panky in a windmill in one of the show's promos for a future episode. What are some ways to spice up your relationship?

Cupid's Advice:

Keeping a relationship interesting and intimate can get put on the back burner as life gets busier, your relationship evolves and you're no longer in the honeymoon phase. It is easy to become complacent on the romantic front when things like work and children take up so much of your time. Spicing up your relationship can be done with the smallest gestures. Cupid has some advice to keep spice things up even in a long-term relationship:

1. Make eye contact: One of the most intimate things between partners is making eye contact. If you want to keep the intimacy alive try this easy tip and make eye contact with your partner when you say, "I love you."

Celebrity News: Tyler C. Claps Back at 'Bachelor' Nation's James Taylor After He Slut Shames 'Queen' Hannah

By Bonnie Griffin

In the latest celebrity news, Tyler Cameron spoke up after James Taylor, a former contestant on a previous season of The Bachelorette, spoke out against Hannah Brown. According to UsMagazine.com, Cameron clapped back at Taylor after he said that “[Hannah doesn’t] have to dry hump em all,” accusing Taylor of using this as a way to stay relevant. Cameron is one reality tv star willing to stand up against Taylor’s attempt at slut shaming.

In celebrity news, one of the guy’s still competing for Bachelorette Hannah Brown’s heart has had enough of James Taylor’s slut shaming comments. What are some ways to stand up for your partner?

Cupid's Advice:

When you're in a relationship, you want to see your partner happy. If someone is saying or doing things that hurt them, you want to stop what is causing their pain. Cupid has some advice when it comes to standing up for your partner:

1. Don't allow people to talk down to them in front of you:

You may have fallen in love with your partner, but that doesn't mean your friends or family have. There may be times when someone in your circle treats your partner like they don't deserve you, or talks down to them. It is important that you step in right away. You want to set the precedent you will not allow them to treat your partner disrespectfully.

2. Shut down negative influencers: Not everyone will say the negative things they think in front of your partner. Some will save their opinions to share with you when your partner is not around. Do not feed their negative opinions by listening and allowing them to say whatever they want. Shut down their negative talk right away, and make them aware that you won't tolerate it in the future. You chose your partner for a reason; don't let other people's negativity influence your feelings in your relationship.

3. Be on their side: There could be times when someone in your circle of friends or family says or does something to your partner that upsets them when you're not there to stop it. If your partner lets you know they've been hurt by something a family member or friend did or said to them, make sure they know you have their back. Call the friend or family member and discuss the incident and make it clear it was upsetting and unacceptable. You don't have to be mean; have a respectful conversation, but make it clear that such actions cannot continue.

Celebrity News: 'Bachelorette' Front Runner Jed's Ex Details Heartbreak & Being Ghosted

By Katie Sotack

In celebrity news, Bachelorette front runner Jed had a girl at home when he left for the show and broke her heart. Jed and his ex, Haley Stevens, are both country singers who fell in love before Jed was accepted onto The Bachelorette. According to UsMagazine.com, Jed went on the show as a way to publicize his music, and Haley didn't want to hold him back from any show biz opportunity. However, the six weeks of filming and two weeks after with no phone call from Jed devastated Haley. When the ex celebrity couple ran into each other at CMA Fest, few words were exchanged and Haley knew they were finished.

In celebrity news, all may not be as it seems with Bachelorette favorite Jed Wyatt. What are some ways to know if your new partner is being genuine?

Cupid's Advice:

When falling in love there's no guarantee. The possibility of pain is around every corner. However there are tell tale signs that your partner is the real deal. Here is dating advice on how to tell if they're leading you on:

1. Listen to your gut: First things first, always listen to your gut. If there's a nagging feeling from something primal in your body, it's probably right. Do a little investigative work into what instinct is telling you.

2. Listen to what they're really saying: If you find yourself in a Haley situation, where your partner is saying 'I love you' but keeping the door to others open: actions speak louder than words. Some people will say anything to keep something good around, but remember that the way someone treats you is the true test to if they value you.

3. Listen to others: So your friends and family raise an eyebrow every time you tell a story about your flailing significant other. Clearly they think this partner's not good enough for you. If their reasons go beyond the shallow (ie: money, looks, etc.) then put stock into what they're saying. They want someone to treat you right even more than you do.

Celebrity News: 'Bachelorette' Hannah Brown Gets Hot & Heavy With Her Guys

By Emily Green

In the latest celebrity news, Bachelorette Hannah Brown isn't afraid to get physical with her men, according to People.com. In fact, in yesterday's episode of the show, Bachelor Nation watched Hannah's three heavy make-out sessions with Peter, Jed and Tyler C. The current Bachelorette believes that being sexually attracted to your future partner is an important part of a relationship. While being a devout Christian, this reality tv star believes that her faith should not come into question when in a relationship. “I have had sex. And Jesus still loves me,” Brown said in this season’s trailer.

In celebrity news, sexual chemistry is clearly important to current Bachelorette Hannah Brown. What are some signs of sexual chemistry to be on the lookout for with your new crush or partner?

Cupid’s Advice:

Sexual chemistry is a key part of any relationship, and it is important to figure out if you and your partner have that spark early on. Here are some of Cupid’s tips on how to see if you and your new partner have that spark of sexual chemistry:

1. Making eye contact feels comfortable: While nerves can come into play, being able to keep eye contact with your partner is an important part of sexual chemistry. Eye contact lets you know that they are actively listening to you, and that they want to be there with you.

3. Follow your instincts: You know that phrase, "Trust your gut?" It really works! If you have an initial instinct about holding your partner's hand, follow through! If they don't reciprocate, you know the spark isn't there. Remember, consent is key in any relationship. If you're unsure about how your partner will respond, don't be afraid to ask! This way you can work out anything that may need to be said, and move on in your relationship.

'Bachelor' Stars Arie
Luyendyk Jr. & Lauren Burnham
Welcome a Baby Girl

By Bonnie Griffin

In the latest celebrity baby news, Bachelor stars Arie Luyendyk Jr. and Lauren Burnham are parents. According to People.com, Luyendyk confirmed on Wednesday that the pair welcomed their first child together, a beautiful baby girl. After meeting and falling in love on The Bachelor, the celebrity couple has maintained their relationship in the public eye throughout the pregnancy, although they have not yet released the baby's name.

The latest celebrity baby news is that this Bachelor couple welcomed a baby daughter. What are some ways to work on your relationship while at the same time having a young child?

Cupid's Advice:

Having children is a beautiful gift, but that does not mean being a parent with young children is easy. Add the stress of now having a young child who solely relies on their parents to your relationship and you might find yourself asking how your relationship will survive. Cupid has some advice to keep your relationship working after having kids:

1. Have adult conversations: Just because you have a child doesn't mean all of your conversations have to revert to baby talk. You still need to communicate with each other, and as much as your young child is a very important part of your lives, they cannot be the only thing you discuss. Don't cut out your conversations just because you have a child, even if time alone is limited just have your conversations in front of your child because they will likely interrupt even if you try to take a moment and step out of the room.

Related Link: Celebrity Baby News: Jenna Bush Hagar Is Expecting Third Child

2. Work as a team: It is important for both parties in a relationship to remember that you both had a child, and that means sharing more than those adorable baby grins. It means that you need to share the work with each other. You both have to help with the fun parts and the bad parts like when they have a meltdown. Be a united front when your child is having a tantrum because it will only add to your stress if you are not on the same team.

Related Link: Celebrity Baby News: Backstreet Boys' Nick Carter and Wife Are Expecting Baby No. 2

3. You both deserve time out: Every parent needs an occasional break. A break from your partner and even the occasional break from your child. We all need a little me time now and again. Give each other that time out and away to just be alone and revel in their own thoughts. Even though this time alone may seem like a strange way to help work on your relationship, your partner will love you for offering them a break.

Celebrity Parents: Former 'Teen Mom' Star Jenelle Evans Is 'Exhausted' Amid Custody Battle

By Bonnie Griffin

In the latest celebrity news, former Teen Mom star Jenelle Evans and husband David Eason are back in court trying to regain custody of their children. According to what a source told EOnline.com, Evan and Eason are “hoping to get [their] kids back in time for summer.” The children were taken after allegations that Eason killed their family dog, Nugget. The celebrity couple plan to seek counseling after they regain custody of their children and life begins getting back to normal.

These celebrity parents are fighting for custody of their kids. What are some ways to avoid a custody battle amid a split?

Cupid's Advice:

Splitting up when you have children doesn't need to result in a custody battle. If both parents agree to be reasonable, then a custody agreement can be made without ending up in a conflict. Cupid has some advice to keep things amicable:

1. Get informed: A good place to start working towards an amicable custody agreement is to become informed in your state's custody laws. Learn what "a child's best interest" means based on the laws in your state because that is what the court will base their decisions on when it comes to the custody of your children.

Related Link: Celebrity Wedding News: Zoe Kravitz & Karl Glusman Secretly Married

2. Ask your family attorney questions: Your children are the most important people in a custody case, so don't be afraid to ask your attorney lots of questions, and do not let them pacify you with vague answers. This will not only help you better understand the matter at hand, helping you become more informed but will prepare you for all possibilities and help you fulfill the role of being reasonable so you can avoid an ugly battle in court.

Related Link: Celebrity News: Are Khloe Kardashian & French Montana Getting Back Together?

3. Be open to working with your ex: Just like you want to spend time with your children, to be there for them and meet their needs, so does your ex. Children want and need both of their parents, so be reasonable when making demands during custody litigation and keep in mind that your children need time with you and your ex.

Celebrity Interview: Temptation Island's Kaci Campbell Says She Deserves 'A Lot Better' Than Evan Smith After Heartbreak in Finale

Interview by Lori Bizzoco. Written by Courtney Shapiro.

Kaci Campbell flew out to Hawaii with Evan Smith, her long-term, live-in boyfriend to join the cast of the exhilarating reality show, Temptation Island. The couple had been struggling with their relationship and not sure whether they should end it or move on. As we saw on tonight's finale, Evan called it quits with Kaci leaving her for his new girlfriend, Morgan Lalor. We just spoke to Kaci and she says she is the happiest she's ever been in her life.

In our exclusive celebrity interview we chat with Kaci about her and Evan's promise to one another and game plan, her connection with Val Osipov, and what life looks like now that she is off the island.

Check out our celebrity interview with Kaci Campbell as she reflects on her previous relationship with Evan Smith:

1. You sound like you're in a great mood. Can you tell us why?

I'm not going to lie. I'm totally nervous for the finale. I haven't seen it, I've heard about it from a lot of different reporters and through Reality Steve's podcast; he's told me all about it. I've heard it's very brutal and hard to watch, and I'm scared. I'm not gonna lie With that said, at the end of the day this whole bizarre, extreme experiment that I put my relationship through is such a blessing in disguise. It honestly saved my life.

I was really hanging on to my relationship with Evan for a long, long time and fighting for it, but he's not my person at all. I deserve a lot better, and now that he's gone and out of my life, I feel such relief, and so free. I'm so excited for the show to be over and for the finale to be done. It's almost like lifting a band-aid off. I just can't wait for the next chapter of my life honestly. I don't know, it's crazy. For the first time in my life I'm truly genuinely happy, which is insane because six months ago I was heartbroken and depressed and anxiety ridden.

2. Can you tell us what conversations you had with Evan going into this show and what happened at the final Bonfire?

Evan and I, we came to Temptation Island with each other. To this day, he is trying to tell people that I didn't and I forced him on the island, which is really just a blatant lie. He wanted to be there. He wanted the fame and what not, and me and him had a game plan. Our game plan was no matter what we see, no matter what we hear at bonfires, we said that we will not make any decisions about our relationship until we go home. It was about three days before we got on our flight to Maui, and I broke down crying to him, telling him 'I feel like this just needs to be said Evan.' 'If for some reason one of us falls for someone or has feelings for someone, please let's not break up with each other on national television. Let's go home and handle things in the privacy of our home. We owe that to ourselves, we owe that to our families, we've been best friends for so many years, so it's the right thing to do. He kinda laughed it off and was trying to calm me down, and said that's ridiculous, it doesn't even need to be said, but okay I promise.'

That was kind of my mindset going into the bonfire, I was extremely disappointed with his behavior. I was quite honestly disgusted. I was second guessing myself, but thought that I couldn't break up with him on TV. He has been through enough with his family and his father. So, I went into it knowing I wanted to go home and figure out things at home.

Related Link: Celebrity Interview: Temptation Island Star, Evan Smith Says, "Ultimatums are Cruel When Dealing with Matters of the Heart."

Evan basically humiliated me with zero regard, zero respect, and no hesitation at all. It was absolutely unbelievable, and

I can't even really describe what I was feeling because quite honestly it was a total out of body experience. I've never experienced anything like that in my life. I totally blacked out. I don't think they even show this, but I left Evan at the bonfire. I went running down the path. The crew was yelling my name, telling me where to go, chasing me with cameras. I got into the Escalade and I just remember I couldn't cry because I didn't understand what was happening. I had a full blown breakdown in the Escalade. It was nuts, I was pulling my choker, I couldn't breathe. Honestly the fact that Evan did that to me in that way to this day is still shocking. I knew he had issues, and I knew he wasn't necessarily the best guy, but I didn't truly realize what he was capable of. Again it's such a blessing, I don't have time for that in my life.

3. You seemed to have recognized these signs and had a premonition about Evan. Can you elaborate on that?

With Evan, I was in a very strange situation with him. I had a lot of gut feelings about him for a really, really long time. I would actually try to break up with him, and he would kind of convince me to stay. He would use lines like this is what a normal long-term relationship is like, Kaci, you're overthinking this. We're not gonna be best friends everyday, we're gonna fight. We've known each other for 10 years, this is normal. The next day he would be prince charming again and sweep me off my feet. Also because of everything he's been through, in my mind I'm such a ride or die and such a loyal person that I didn't want to give up on him. Temptation Island proved to me that tragedy or not, he's just not a good person. I do wish I listened to my gut a long time ago

Related Link: Celebrity Interview: 'Temptation Island' Host Mark Walberg Shares His Secret to a Happy Relationship

4. Evan mentioned that he wasn't close with your family and only saw them a handful of times. What do you think about this?

That was actually Evan's choice. My family went above and beyond for him and invited him to family vacations, got him Christmas presents, birthday presents, wanted to go on double dates with us. It was always a big deal, and it was always me constantly trying to get Evan to be around my family, but it was uncomfortable like I was walking on eggshells.

5. Why did you stay with Evan if you knew he was not a good guy and why did you need a reality show to determine this?

Basically, Evan, he's really good at saying things are temporary. I would break down and cry about our relationship saying 'I can't be with someone who isn't good to my family and push them away like that. He would tell me 'I just have demons, it's not gonna be like this forever, and one day everything is going to be fine. He just knew exactly what to say to reassure me that this was just temporary and just a phase and this is not forever and that he would definitely have a relationship with my family, and when we have children we'd all spend time together at Christmas and at birthdays, and everything would be fine.

6. What are your thoughts on him and Morgan?

I don't know, that's a whole other thing. I'm not gonna lie I genuinely from the bottom of my heart hope to God for her sake and her family's sake that it's real and legitimate and they have a happy ever after marriage and just live healthy and happy forever. I genuinely want that not even for Evan, but for Morgan. No girl or woman ever deserves to go through what I went through. It'll be Prince Charming for a while and then one day it'll be a light switch. She'll start noticing things and get gut feelings, and I just hope to God she listens to it. I think it's damage control, I really do. There's a lot of hate and I think he is just trying to prove a point because that's what Evan does. He is very combative and confrontational, and I think it was one last jab to really hurt me to be honest.

Related Link: Celebrity Interview: Southern Belle Kady Krambeer Shares Details About Temptation Island Experience

7. Let's talk about something more positive. Can you tell us about the relationship you built with Val? Do you still talk to him?

Val and I are very close. We talk on a day to day basis. I definitely had very strong feelings for him on the show that I was not pursuing because I was loyal and didn't want to be tempted. The whole reason I went on the show was so Evan could prove himself to me, and that was obviously a failure. I wasn't there to meet someone and fall in love. I was there for Evan to prove to me that he's not the same person I met when he was a boy. Looking back, I wish I did pursue things with Val. I definitely wouldn't have taken it to the extent that Morgan and Evan did because I don't retaliate in that way at all. I don't think it's right. To be honest, I don't think it's right for Val; he's one of the best people I've ever met in my life. If me and him were to ever be a thing, I wouldn't want to start in that type of environment, being on a reality show while my boyfriend is cheating on me. If it's the real deal, it needs to be started in a much healthier environment.

8. Tell us what life has been like after the show. What have you learned about yourself?

I was very blind to the toxic situation I was in for a long time. I finally truly know my worth and know what I deserve, and never again will I be with a man that is anything remotely like Evan. The rose-colored glasses are totally off. He did me a huge favor.

I don't regret the ultimatum I gave him at all. I was stuck, and I was sacrificing my happiness for a person that doesn't deserve me. That ultimatum and going on the show, everything happens for a reason. I wouldn't have met Val. I wouldn't be happy like I am today. I do not walk on eggshells everyday anymore. Temptation Island saved my life.

10. What is next for you?

Life is looking bright. I am currently looking at apartments. It is up in the air. I can't really say where I am looking. I may have some stuff coming up in the entertainment industry, tons of ambassadorships coming up, and making income outside of my 9 to 5 job. I am doing YouTube and I am launching a podcast and I do have my own brand, Bossy that I had to put on hold while I was going through this craziness. So, I am relaunching that. And, I am talking with publishers about writing a book. The book might be a fictional experience about my time on Temptation Island. That will be fun and there will be different characters.

11. You mentioned moving out of your apartment. What was it like when Evan came back? Did you guys have a conversation? When did he leave?

Honestly, that story is a complete nightmare. I am going to try to make it as quick as possible. Basically, I got on a plane to LAX and he stayed in Maui for a few days with Morgan. It was my birthday, he flew back on my birthday. He was texting me non-stop, begging and pleading to see me telling me he lost his best friend and partner. He says he doesn't know what he did. Meanwhile, I am at my apartment with his little brother and his dog. His brother doesn't know what's happening. Evan is a mile away at a downtown hotel with Morgan. His little brother had to step in and be like, you have to let him over Kaci. I told Evan he had a week to move out. I told him, I will be at work, you have a week to get your stuff and go. Evan would not move out. He would not do it. So finally, I let him do it. He came over. I let him talk. We talked for 24 hours straight. We didn't sleep. He was saying he had serious doubts because the show pitted us up against one another and that he doesn't know what he did and he is doubting his feelings. Then he got on a plane to go to Virginia.

As far as I knew, he was going to be back in 10 days. He was going to let Morgan know his doubts and that there was hope for us and that we were going to live separately, and stuff. Then literally three days later, I was sitting at the In and Out Drive Thru with one of our mutual friends and three hours before, he had sent me a "thinking of you" text with a heart emoji. Then while I am at the drive thru, he literally dumped me again in an novel text message. At that point, I cannot even explain what happened. It was like a light switch. It was so emotionally and psychologically insane. Ever since then, he was reaching out to me through text messages, through my friends, threatening to publish my love letters. New Years Day is when I told him, this is how I feel about you. It was a pretty vicious text. I told him that there is no hope for us to be okay so to stop messaging and texting me. And, I haven't heard from him since.

12. Any final words?

I cannot even explain how disrespectful and uncivil this whole situation was -to me, to my family to his family. It was like out of this world. Everyone is saying that it was a blessing in disguise and that I dodged every bullet in the book. I am not going to lie; October and November I was not okay. And, then right around Thanksgiving, I was like "Boom, lights on" I am good. I don't miss him. I deserve someone who is good and is going to love and protect me and cherish me. And, someone who is never going to do these things to me ever.

He is all I have really known for my adult life. He is really all I have ever known. And it sounds crazy, but I spent three weeks with Val and he is so different than Evan. I felt so strong and sure of myself and confident. The absolute best version of myself. Evan never made me feel that way. The fact that someone I just met was able to make me feel that way, that in itself was a sign.

Celebrity Interview: She's Engaged! Temptation Island Reality Star, Morgan Lolar Talks About Falling in Love with Evan Smith

Interview by Lori Bizzoco. Written by Courtney Shapiro

When filming began for the rebooted reality sensation, Temptation Island, Morgan Lolar came to Hawaii as a single woman with no expectations of falling in love. But love hit her hard when she met Evan Smith, a man who came on the show confused about the status of his relationship with long-term girlfriend, Kaci Campbell. Now, Evan and Morgan are happily engaged and they couldn't be more excited for their future together!

In our exclusive celebrity interview, we chat with Morgan about her initial connection with Evan, the scenes that didn't make it on the show as well as why going on Temptation Island was the best decision she's ever made.

Check out our celebrity interview with Morgan Lolar to hear all about her time on Temptation Island:

1. You seem so charismatic and confident. Why explore love on a reality show, especially when you know that people are in relationships and may not be single?

That was actually the hardest part for me. I almost didn't even go on the show. The night before the producers called me and were like your flight is in a few hours, are you going? I was like 'uh' I just didn't know how I was going to do it. My friends convinced me to go on the plane. I could see myself being on a reality show, but I never saw myself being on a dating reality show. So, it was very hard for me, but it was the best decision I've ever made in my life, So, I am so happy that I did it.

2. Were you nervous about falling for someone who was either just ending a relationship or confused about the status of their relationship?

Yes, initially that was one of the reasons I was scared to go on the show because I didn't want to interfere with someone's relationship. But, I was assured several times that these couples were at extreme crossroads, and they were basically stuck in their relationships and were scared to meet other people because they didn't think they would get the time they needed to meet other people because of dating nowadays. Anyone can relate to that and I feel like a lot of people have been in relationships where they are just with the person because they're comfortable, and I know that I have done that before too. So, I sympathize with that and was like okay, I will try it.

3. Did you all of the worst case scenarios in your head before the show? For example, what if I fall for someone and they are with someone, how do I prepare myself for that, etc?

Absolutely not, I didn't prepare myself for anything. When my family and friends convinced me to do it, they said 'Morgan, your dating life here [In D.C.] sucks, you're not happy right now, you've never been to Hawaii, it's gonna be fun, so just go and do it.' So basically my head was like I am going to make friends and have fun. I definitely did not think that I was going to fall in love with somebody at all. It goes to show that the best things happen when you are not expecting them at all.

Related Link: Celebrity Interview: 'Temptation Island' Host Mark Walberg Shares His Secret to a Happy Relationship

4. What was life like before you appeared on the show, did you have to leave a job?

I'm a real estate agent, so I have a really flexible schedule. Also, what makes it even better is that my mom is also a real estate agent in the area. She lives about 7 miles away from me, so when they were convincing me to go she was like, I will take care of whatever it is that you need me to take care of. It is going to be fine, you are going. I really didn't have an excuse. My job wasn't going to be affected.

5. You and Evan seemed to really hit it off. Was there any initial hesitation and what convinced you to go all in?

As everyone saw, there was the whole confrontation that happened the first night we were in the house. I had not talked to Evan at all really. I really didn't get any words in with him. So, my first real interaction was me screaming at him that I don't like him. It started out really rocky, but after he asked me out on that first date, it was maybe two sentences into talking to him and I was like 'whoa' this is not what I expected. We hit it off right away.

6. What was it that attracted you to him?

That is the thing that is so funny. I thought he was attractive initially. I said to Katherine, 'Oh, he is really attractive' and she took that and ran with it and told him that I liked him. Which, of course anyone would probably get frustrated over that. But, mostly what attracted me to him was once we were on our first date, I kind of messed with him a little bit. I'm extremely dry with my humor and I'm sarcastic, and right away he just got it. He was cool with it and really funny. He let me mess with him and he really just got my humor right away. We were laughing the entire time.

7. Were there any particular scenes that the viewers didn't see that you wish they did?

Oh my gosh. Are there any? Almost like every episode I was like 'what' they aren't showing what actually happened. I know they don't have the time to do that and I guess it is more entertaining to watch us make out in slow-mo than it is for us to talk about our lives and stuff.

But in terms of a specific time, we were talking about our lives growing up and I have a twin brother and a little sister and he has two brothers. We would talk about the things that we would do when we were little and he asked me to tell him something that I did when I was little that I still do now. I told him that he was going to think I was such a weirdo, but I still make forts sometimes. I don't know why I do it, but it is really weird. He would make fun of me for it, but then a few days later, I go up to his room, and he made me a fort. It was like the cutest thing that you've ever seen. He had taken like all the chairs and seats and stuff and made this really cute fort. We hung out in there, and they didn't show it. I was like, that would have been something to get to know us and our relationship. He is so sweet and they don't show that.

8. On a scale of 1-10, what were your feelings for Evan on the show?

It went from a negative five to a 10 really, really, really fast. It was our first date. I think he said the same thing. After our first date, I was like oh wow, this guy, I really, really like him. It was quick. It was crazy.

9. Can you tell us what your status is now and your future?

Yes, I am actually engaged now! It's actually the most exciting thing in my entire life! I didn't expect this at all, it's crazy. He hid it so well. I had no idea. He is so frickin' sweet.

So, apparently my engagement got leaked on Twitter or something. The guy who posted it, said it was the fourth time that he proposed. It is so funny because the camera crew were there, so it happened and I was like bawling. He did it so perfectly, but they had to film it again, so he had to get back on his knee again. The entire time, I am just still crying because I am in shock that this happened. So, it wasn't fake like they made it seem, like he didn't do it right four times. They made it seem like it wasn't cute but it was beautiful the entire time and he did it perfect. That is something that bothers me but it is what it is.

10. So here is Evan proposing to you and confirming his commitment to you in the biggest way. But what are you feeling about the other side of this, about Kaci? What are you thinking knowing what she went through? You are a woman, there must be something going through your head.

First of all, you mentioned proving his commitment to me. I have never felt like that at all with Evan. I don't understand, and I wasn't in their relationship, but with him and I, I don't question him at all. There is nothing to ever make me think that I'm not number one in his life. That is also why I was really shocked because I wasn't pushing him to propose or anything. So, I think it just goes to show that when you know, you know. He wanted to do it and was excited to do it. That's what made it even more special, because I wasn't expecting him to propose to me. It's only been six months.

11. How long were you together when he proposed?

We went on our first date on September 16th, and he proposed on February 25th, so we figured out that it was five months and a day. It's actually a really cute story because Evan is really close with my parents now and my dad was talking to him and told him, 'you know it's really funny because I proposed to Morgan's mom after five months exactly.' He didn't know that and now you proposed to Morgan in five months and one day.' My parents have been together for 25 years now.

12. So what was life like after the show. You have to have this secret love and you can't say anything, what was that like?

It is really hard to keep someone that you love and want to be with all the time hidden. It's impossible, my friends all know him here, but we always have to do something at somebody's house. We can't really go to the bars. Once the show started, we would be at the gym and someone would recognize us so we now Evan can't go to the gym and I was like you can bench press me if you want and he was like, that's not going to work. It is really hard. It is a lot harder than than people think it would be, especially because it has been a long time. It's been like six months.

13. So what is your future? Where are you guys living?

After the show ended, which was around October 5th, we stayed in Hawaii for 2 days and then we flew to California. He stayed in California for an extra day and then packed all of his stuff and flew to D.C. He's been living with me ever since. We have spent every single day together. We're more in love every day. We just love one another. And it is so cool because there is no one in the world going through what I am going through right now with the hate and and all of this stuff. It is really bad except for him. He is going through it too. It is really sad. We are the villains of the show but we are the only ones who found love. There are days when he is getting beat up by the media, but he knows that he can just come and hug me because he knows that I understand it. He knows that I am going through the same thing that he is going through.

14. How do you handle all of the haters and social media in general?

We tell ourselves it is love, it's just love. Learn about it.

15. Was there anything you would have done differently on the show, or do you have any regrets about the way that things were handled?

I don't have any regrets about how things went with us. It is just how the show made it seem. It made it seem like Evan and I were sleeping together right away, when he didn't even kiss me until our third date together. It made it seem like after our first date we were sleeping together. That's Reality TV though, it has to look more interesting. Other people were sleeping together, but we were the only ones shown doing it. It's crazy. The one thing I would change is that I said the F word a lot, but that is probably it.

16. Let's go back to Kaci. Do her and Evan talk? Do you know anything going on with her?

They do not speak at all anymore. She was messaging him all the time and he was very honest with me. He would show me the stuff that she was saying. It was a lot. She was asking him to come back and crazy things. Finally he asked her to stop contacting him, because it wasn't fair to me. Then on New Years we were sitting with my family, watching It's a Wonderful Life and she texted him 27 messages in a row.

17. What's next for you guys? Would you do a spin-off or more reality TV?

We would love to do more reality TV just because we're hilarious together. We balance each other out so well. He is super emotional, while I'm not. I feel like I'm the funny one, since he laughs at every single thing I do. We're just super cute. We balance each other out super well. So I think it would be really good. We want to do something like the Challenge just because we're both college athletes, and we have a really fun dynamic.

18. Are you thinking about wedding plans?

Evan is; he already started thinking about all of that. He wants to get married in the spring or summer of 2020. I feel really happy about that. He's just so great. He is like the planner, and I'm not at all. I am more go with the flow. I feel so so lucky!

I don't know what's next. We are just in love. We are both just so happy. This is the best thing that I have ever done. It is so crazy. Love is love you know, and it's one of the best decisions I made, which is crazy because I almost didn't go.

Celebrity

Interview:

Temptation Island Star, Evan Smith Says, “Ultimatums are Cruel When Dealing with Matters of the Heart.”

Interview by Lori Bizzoco. Written by Courtney Shapiro

Evan Smith joined his longtime girlfriend Kaci Campbell along with three other couples and 24 eligible men and women on the first season of the rebooted reality show, Temptation Island, which began airing in January. Going into filming, Smith and Campbell, who had been together for 10 years total and five years exclusively, seemed to want different things out of their relationship, and they were hopeful that they would get answers to their questions during their time on the island.

In our exclusive celebrity interview, we talk with Evan about why ultimatums can be problematic, his connection with single cast member Morgan Lolar, and what life is like for him after Temptation Island.

Check out our celebrity interview with Temptation Island star, Evan Smith to hear more about life on the island, his relationship with Kaci and how hard he fell for single cast member, Morgan:

1. How does it feel now that you are a famous reality star?

I think I'm just south of famous (laughing). I never thought I'd be a part of it [reality TV]. It is wild seeing yourself every week on Tuesday nights, but life's still the same for me.

2. How did your family and friends react to you being on the show?

My family and friends were so supportive. I have two younger brothers that actually work for in reality TV for MTV, but they're behind the camera not in front of it. I got the talks from them telling me how it is. You know it's reality TV, so it's how they want to tell your story and see what's going to be the most fun to watch and the most sensationalized, so I came into it knowing full well that was going to be the case.

3. Do you feel like you were your authentic self on the show?

It's funny you say that. I definitely was my authentic self. It was just that I feel like the viewers only got to see one side of me. Obviously, Morgan and I just had lightning between us and it was so much fun. Morgan and I had such amazing conversations and that led to the connection that everyone got to see.

4. It must be hard with the cameras always on you. But, you didn't seem to care. You were able to just be in the moment with Morgan. Can you tell us more about that?

It was definitely weird. I'm not gonna lie, I was pretty shook when we started, but the producers told us, 'You're going to just forget that the cameras are there, and just look at whoever you're talking to.' when you speak. I look everyone in the eye when I talk to them, so I just tunnel visioned it. I was there to find answers, I was there to explore connections, so that's what I wanted to do.

5. You were in a long term relationship while being cast on 'Temptation Island.' What were your expectations going into this show? Were you hoping that Kaci would change or slow down about wanting a commitment?

Going into it, we both knew that we were at a crossroads. It was make it or break it time. Kaci was very adamant about me proposing and taking that next step in our relationship. For whatever reason, before we left the island, I had my reservations about it. I respect marriage so much, and I know that I'm going to be the guy that asks one time, and it's going to be with one person for the rest of my life. I just want to be 100% sure. I was hoping that going to Temptation Island would help open my eyes to what I have with my old connections and new connections. I just wanted to find answers.

6. We spoke with the show's host Mark Walberg previously and he said, "It never works when you give an ultimatum." How do you feel about that statement?

Ultimatums are cruel, especially when dealing with matters of the heart. To be frank, Kaci telling me I needed to propose by a certain date takes the love and passion out of what that amazing day is supposed to be. I remember being a kid and thinking about the day I would propose to somebody. It's going to be special, and you're going to be nervous, but so excited, and wanting to do it, not being told you have to do it by a certain date.

7. Do you think having an ultimatum from Kaci led to you building those stronger feelings for Morgan?

I think Kaci and I both went into this knowing we weren't in the best place. I knew what I was getting myself into, and I originally didn't want to do the show, but I did. Going into it with those ultimatums and where we were in our relationship, it was tough, but I knew I needed to be there. It was one of the best decisions I ever made in my life.

8. On a scale of 1-10, how strong were your feelings for Morgan?

While we were filming, up until the point of the bonfire, I'm there, I'm at a 10. Morgan and I were talking about how I would have to face Kaci. It was a very high stress moment and we were both just a little shook.

9. The viewers got to see your incredible chemistry. Sometimes, when it's a 10, it's hard to think logically, so did you feel like that?

That's the thing about Temptation Island, and what was so incredible about the experience. We were completely unplugged from the real world. It was no cell phones and no television, so when we're there we're just with each other. Spending time on the island is real time together. Morgan and I talked about everything, where we grew up, what our siblings are like, funny stories, we were cracking up laughing at each other through the entire show. There was so much more being said, and I was thinking 100% clearly.

10. Is there any particular scene that was edited off or didn't make it onto the show, but you wish it did?

Here's the thing about the editing; they have so many stories to tell. There are 13 singles on our side of the island alone, so I know it's not out of malicious intent that they don't show certain things. I just wish they showed the stories about Morgan growing up. She and I had so many discussions, and she told me about growing up in Arizona, and then moving to the south in Alabama. We had very serious and profound conversations that I wish made the cut. There were also just some silly things that I guess weren't entertaining enough.

11. You and Morgan definitely follow each other on social media. Are you guys still talking?

A little banter back and forth on social media is always healthy.

12. Where are you living, and what do your plans for the future look like?

I'm a personal trainer, and L.A. is my home. My clients are here, my best friends are here, so L.A. is definitely the place for me. As for moving forward, I definitely want to explore more reality TV, maybe try MTV or something. I just want to be happy, and I'm just excited for this Temptation Island ride to be over 13. Is there anything else you want to leave us with?

I hope you guys understand that all of us put our hearts on the line, all my cast mates, including the singles, we all put ourselves out there, and I hope everyone comes out on this other end better or at least learned something from this.

Celebrity News: 'Bachelorette' Star Blake Horstmann Talks Moving On After Becca Kufrin Split

By Mara Miller

In the latest celebrity news, Bachelorette alum Blake Horstmann has had a hard time moving on from Becca Kurfir since she broke his heart when she sent him home. According to UsMagazine.com, the most recent season finale of The Bachelor brought back memories for Blake after Colton Underwood ended his relationships with Hannah and Tayshia. Horstmann has now moved on, and even considers Garrett Yrigoyen a close friend despite his engagement to Kufirin

In celebrity news, Blake Horstmann didn't have an easy time moving on after his split from Becca Kufirin. What are some ways to cope with a broken heart?

Cupid's Advice:

Heartbreak isn't easy, but here are a few ways you can cope with heartbreak:

1. Spend time with friends: Your friends—the close ones—are your number one support network after a heartbreak. Go see a movie, get ice cream, lobster and steak—whatever strikes your fancy with your besties. It's a way to take your mind off the heartbreak and to try to gather a sense of normalcy.

2. Stay in the present: Don't focus on the past. What happened happened, and there is no way for you to change it. All you can do is live in the present and focus on yourself. If you let yourself continuously dwell in the past you will never be able to move on.

3. Practice self-love: Make sure you're eating right and getting enough sleep. It can be easy to neglect taking care of yourself while you're going through heartbreak. You need to learn to love yourself again. It's not easy, but if you're patient with yourself, you can get through it.
