By Katie Sotack

Long time friends Kylie Jenner and Sofia Richie are on the mend, and no one is happier than Richie's boyfriend, Scott Disick. The inter-tangled friend/family history has made the relationships difficult to parse out from one another, but Disick is grateful to his baby mama's sister, Jenner, for welcoming his girl back into the family. The celebrity friends were seen bikini clad and rejoicing on a tropical vacation to Turks and Caicos, reaffirming to the world that everything was a-ok between the two.

In celebrity couple news, Scott Disick enjoys having the support of Kylie Jenner when it comes to his relationship. What are some ways to support your ex's new relationship?

Cupid's Advice:

With all the complicated feelings that even thinking about your ex brings, having them bring their next S.O. into the family is tricky to say the least. Jenner is supporting Disick and Richie's relationship like a mature and respectful ally. Here are relationship tips to root for your ex's new love:

1. Keep your distance: You see your ex repeating similar patterns, you don't think their new lover is treating them right, etc. It's so tempting to pinch the lovebirds on the shoulder and straighten them out. Don't do it. When you get the temptation to meddle, take a deep breath and walk away. By commenting on their current situation, you are adding your baggage with ex-bae to their new love. It's better to keep your distance here.

2. Accept their new partner: Possibly the biggest thing you can do to support their relationship is accepting their new partner. It doesn't have to be as a close confidant, though friendship is a great way to start this process. Welcome the partner into your family space and accept them as a potential life long member.

3. Show social media support: If your friends and family can see you liking and commenting on your ex's new relationship status, they're more likely to show support as well. If you're acting bitter, it's only natural they'd want to have your back and criticize the couple. Be the bigger person and show no negative will toward your ex.

In celebrity news, the words on everyone's lips are, "Where's Sofia?" What are some ways to keep your jealousy in check when your partner interacts with his or her ex?

Cupid's Advice:

Despite the rumors that may be flaring up because Kourtney and Scott took their kids on a vacation, Sofia seemed comfortable enough to remain home so she could attend work events. Sometimes we can't help it if our partner has to interact with their ex if they have children together. Cupid has advice on how to keep your jealousy in check:

1. Remember, your partner is with YOU: Your partner and their ex split up for a reason. Even if they are on friendly terms, you have to realize they didn't work for a reason. Your partner would not be in a relationship with you if what you have between you both isn't working.

2. They might not have a choice: This is especially true if your partner has children with their ex. Would you want to keep a parent away from their children? It's healthier for kids to have parents who don't fight, so try not to let jealousy get in the way of your partner's relationship with their kids. Your relationship may be in jeopardy if you try.

According to UsMagazine.com, though it was all fun and games, Bristowe didn't hesitate to diss her ex in a word association game saying Viall's name negatively in association with "the right reasons." Though it's been years since they've dated, it's clear there's still bad blood even after all this time.

In celebrity news, these exes are clearly not on good terms after their break-up. What are some ways to keep old hurts from your exes from affecting your current life?

Cupid's Advice:

It can be hard to move on from an ex when you've broken up on bad terms. It's best not to let those old wounds reopen and keep you from living your life. It's not always easy to be friends with your ex, like Kourtney Kardashian is with Scott Disick, but it is possible to prevent that old relationship from holding you back like Khloe Kardashian after her break up with Tristan Thompson. Cupid has some tips:

1. Be comfortable moving on: Sometimes when you're afraid of being alone, you tend to hold on to toxic people. Holding on to exes who are not good for you can lead to being resentful and holding onto bitterness, like Bristowe with her ex Viall.

2. Let go of any possible future together: If you're still holding onto to the idea of you and your ex being together, it stops you from building a life with someone else. It also stops you from growing as a person because you may be stuck in the past.

3. Don't talk about your ex: Don't talk about your ex-partner. Just don't. Talking about them is a sign that you're not over them. If you talk about them, you're thinking about them. If you're thinking about them, you're not moving on. Stop talking about them and you will stop thinking about them and you'll finally move on to better things.

Cupid's Advice:

There are plenty of ways to keep the spark alive in your relationship. Sometimes it happens naturally because of who you are and sometimes it requires work. Either way, Cupid has some love advice for you:

1. Don't stop flirting: In the beginning, flirting gave us that fluttery feeling in our stomachs (yeah, butterflies – remember those?). This keeps that “new” feeling going. Sometimes couples stop with the compliments, stop with the flirtatious and promiscuous comments, and that can take some of the fun out of your relationship. Every couple is different, but if you both enjoyed flirting before, you should definitely still be doing it. Send text messages, and do it in person!

Celebrity Getaway: Scott Disick & Sofia Richie Enjoy PDA on Mexican Vacation

By Jessica Gomez

Kourtney Kardashian's ex Scott Disick and girlfriend Sofia Richie were all lovey dovey during their celebrity vacation in Mexico, according to EOnline.com. The celebrity couple posted photos on Instagram. Both were having fun and a ton of PDA was going on. According to a source, the couple is very happy, always have fun, and were making out and all over one another often during the vacay.

This celebrity getaway is getting steamy. What are some things to consider when it comes to public displays of affection?

Cupid's Advice:

PDA is a controversial topic. Some people are fine with it, and some people are hardcore against it. There are different levels of PDA, from holding hands to make out sessions and butt grabbing – so different levels call for different measures. Cupid has some tips on things you should consider when it comes to public displays of affection:

1. Are there kids around?: This matters depending on the level of PDA of course. Are you just kissing one another innocently or is it to the point of someone telling you to get a room? Children are innocent and you wouldn't want to influence them in a particular way, especially if they aren't your kids.

Related Link: Prince Harry & Meghan Markle Plan Vacation Ahead of Wedding

2. Are you making others uncomfortable?: Generally, we are told to not care about what others think. However, it can be annoying when a group of friends are hanging out, and there's that couple all over each other the whole time. Do as you please, but try to keep in mind whether or not you're overdoing it. Everything in moderation.

3. The place: PDA stands for public displays of attention (as we all know), but certain public places may be more acceptable than others. For example: work, school, a funeral home, children's playgrounds, and hospitals are obvious places where most people would agree couples should stray away from intense PDA. So just keep your eyes open and be aware of your surroundings, and of course pay attention to the level of PDA.

This celebrity news shows that these exes aren't necessarily civil Breakups can be messy. Breakups with kids can be really messy. While Kardashian and Disick try and remain civil for the sake of their three children, it's clear they face their fair share of problems. If you're having trouble with an ex, Cupid has some tips that you can implement into your life:

1. Kick the emotions to the curb: You must keep your frustrations and all negative feelings about your ex between the two of you. It's easy to jump to conclusions and expect the worst from your ex if you ended on bad terms and continue to have drama. Your child (or children) are the most important commitment you two share, so when they're around, get along as best as you possibly can.

2. Have a clear-cut plan: Early on into your separation or divorce, it is pivotal to have a clear and defined custody agreement. Between the two of you, decide on a visitation schedule and figure out how you will celebrate holidays and their birthdays. It won't be easy by any means, but it will really help you diffuse potential conflicts from arising.

In celebrity news, this dad is not thrilled at his daughter's rumored love life. What are some ways to deal if your parents aren't fond of your partner?

Cupid's Advice:

When starting a new relationship, it is important to have support from those you love, especially your family. However, your parents may not always like the person you bring home. Here are a few ways to handle a situation like that:

1. Talk with them: Many times, the reason your parents don't like your partner is because they don't know anything about them. If your parents have heard rumors about them, only know about their past, or are making predetermined judgments of any kind, then they simply need to get to know your partner. Sit down with your parents and let them know how much you care about your partner and explain why. Often times, when they realize how much you like the relationship they come around.

Related Link: Celebrity News: Scott Disick & Kourtney Kardashian Are Not on Speaking Terms

2. Compromise: Sometimes the best thing to do when your parents dislike your partner is to compromise. If they have an issue with your partner coming to major family events, then don't bring them along. However, make your parents understand that it is important to you that your partner comes over to family night once in a while. This way, your partner still gets to be apart of your family dynamic, without impeding on your parents wishes

3. Accept it: You can't force people to like each other and sometimes there is just nothing you can do. If your parents are dead set on not liking your partner, you will have to accept the situation as it is, and move on. As long as your parents understand that you and your partner are happy, and your relationship is important, then it shouldn't matter what they think.

This celebrity news has drama written all over it. What are some ways to keep drama out of your relationship?

Cupid's Advice:

Kourtney and Scott might have been one of the most dramatic couples Hollywood has ever seen. Here are some tips to keep the drama to a minimum:

1. Keep it private: Constantly posting about your relationship – whether it be the good, the bad, or the ugly – could open the opportunity for other people to get involved. By keeping the social media to a minimum, drama definitely won't be a huge problem, as your relationship will remain between you and your partner.

2. Communicate: Conflicts or arguments tend to get even worse when there's poor communication. If there's something bothering you, be straight forward! Calmly explain to your partner that there is an issue that you'd like to work on, together. This opens the opportunity to have clear communication and a productive conversation to fix the problem. No drama here!

3. Choose to let it go: There are just some arguments that aren't even worth having (like that one about who's turn it is to empty the dishwasher?). Recognize that while conflict can be healthy at times – when it's productive – there doesn't always have to be a fight. Sometimes, you can just validate your partner's feelings, apologize, and move forward.

By Whitney Johnson

And just like that, it's over. According to UsMagazine.com, Bella Thorne is over Cannes, France after Scott Disick was spotted kissing his celebrity ex Chloe Bartoli. The actress tweeted, "Yo this #cannes fancy life isn't for me." As previously reported in celebrity news, Thorne and Disick were first seen at dinner in Los Angeles before they took their budding celebrity relationship to Cannes. There, they packed on the PDA and got cozy poolside. Interestingly, according to past celebrity news, Bartoli is the same celebrity ex that led to Disick's split from Kourtney Kardashian in July 2015.

In celebrity news, that was certainly a short celebrity relationship! What are some ways to know quickly that a relationship is not for you?

Cupid's Advice:

Some relationships aren't meant to last forever; instead, they're just casual hookups, like Thorne and Disick's fling. So how can you quickly know that a relationship isn't for you? Consider this dating advice below:

1. There's only physical attraction: Sure, physical attraction is important in a relationship, but it can't be all that the two of you share. As Thorne and Disick showed us, making out will only get you so far! You need to connect intellectually too.

2. You don't want the same things: If you and your partner don't want similar things for the future, chances are, your relationship will amount to nothing more than a short-lived fling. In this celebrity relationship, it was rumored that Thorne was just in it for the media attention.

New Celebrity Couple? Kourtney Kardashian Cuddles with Younes Bendjima in France

By Noelle Downey

Is there a new celebrity couple on the horizon? According to UsMagazine.com, Kourtney Kardashian was recently spotted getting cozy with hot model Younes Bendjima on what appeared to be a romantic getaway at Hotel du Cap-Eden-Roc in Antibes, France. Bendjima wrapped his arms around Kardashian from behind in a sweet embrace on the terrace of the hotel in an adorable photo snapped by press. However, although there are rumors that the pair have been spending time together since December, a source claims that Bendjima and Kardashian are keeping it casual. “Kourtney and Younes are not serious,” the source explained, “they are hooking up.” Whatever the label on their celebrity relationship, however, it’s been enough to stir up some trouble when it comes to Kardashian’s celebrity ex, Scott Disick. When photos of Kardashian and Bendjima surfaced, a source claims Disick felt some real pain. “Scott is jealous of Kourtney’s relationship,” the source affirmed. Before this sweet cuddle in France, Kardashian and Bendjima were most recently spotted enjoying their Hollywood relationship in LA in early May.

This celebrity couple says they aren’t defining their relationship. What are some reasons to wait on labeling your relationship?

Cupid’s Advice:

If you’re unsure whether or not you should put a label on your relationship, here are the top three ways to know it may not be time to take that big step:

1. When you’re not looking for a commitment: If you’re more interested in a fun fling than a long term relationship, consider holding off on defining your relationship. Once labels are involved, talks of exclusivity and boundaries in your relationship are inevitable. If you’re looking to keep your flirtation fun but free, then don’t burden either you or the person you’re dating with a label the neither of you want. Keep things casual and tell your friends or any nosy family members that for right now, you two are just hanging out and enjoying each other’s company, with no pressure on either side to make it something more.

2. When you want different things: If you ever feel as though your partner is pressuring you into a label that you're not ready for, step back and call a time out on any further talks about your relationship's identity. Don't allow yourself to be pressured into making a choice you're not ready to make, and if your partner is absolutely adamant that you need a label in order to continue your relationship, than it might be time to say goodbye before either one of you gets hurt. You should never have to apologize for not wanting to be in a relationship with someone, so if you're not ready, you're just not ready. Don't force it.

3. When you don't have time: There's no doubt about it, relationships take a lot of work and effort. If you just don't know how you'd fit in the demands of a relationship into the stress and business of your daily life, then it may not be a good idea to try for anything beyond a casual fling. To be in a healthy relationship, both partners need to be giving of themselves equally, and if you're not in a position where you can make room in your life for the needs and desires of another person, then hold off on the labels until you're in the right time of your life for that big step.

Celebrity Couple News: Kourtney Kardashian is Hooking Up with Sexy Model Younes Bendjima

By Mallory McDonald

In recent celebrity couple news, Kourtney Kardashian may be on the verge of a new fling. According to UsMagazine.com, Kourtney has been seeing model Younes Bendjima for a little while now. The pair were most recently spotted on Friday, December 16, outside the SLS hotel in Beverly Hills. "Kourtney contacted him on Friday afternoon and asked him if he wanted to meet up," an insider told Us. Despite Kourtney's celebrity ex Scott Disick trying to mend their relationship, she is enjoying having a little fun with Bendjima. While many in her inner circle felt like Kourtney and Scott would eventually end up together, it seems she is enjoying a new young flame!

These two may not be a celebrity couple yet, but things are heating up between them! What are some ways to know you're ready for the label that comes along with a relationship?

Cupid's Advice:

Just because you start seeing someone new, doesn't mean the new relationship is ready for a label. Use this relationship advice to help make that decision:

1. Exclusive: When you start seeing someone new and you both decide it is time to start seeing other people, this can be a good indicator that the relationship is ready for a label.

Related Link: Find Out What's Going On with Former Celebrity Couple Kourtney Kardashian & Scott Disick

2. Gone public: Once you and your partner have decided to take the relationship public, it may also be time to put a label on the relationship so that there is no confusion.

3. Fully involved: When you first start seeing someone, you don't always involve them in all the aspects of your life. Once that person has become involved completely in your daily life a label should come easy.

When did you decide to finally label your relationship?

This celebrity couple has been through a lot of ups and downs. What are some things to consider before getting back together with your ex?

Cupid's Advice:

The decision about whether to get back together with ex can be tough. There are a lot of things to consider. Cupid has some dating advice:

1. Is it worth it?: If you get back together, are you going to be happy? Was it worth the constant fighting and stress? Make sure you are getting into the relationship for the right reasons. If you do have children, it's understandable that you'd want to get back together for them, but make sure it's also what you want.

2. What was your last fight about?: Think about the last fight you had. Was that the reason you broke-up? Did it end poorly? If you still hold grudges from that last fight, it may not be worth getting back together, because it could be brought back to surface quite easily.

Hamptons Date Night Dining: Food, Scenery, and Celebrities

By Nicole Caico

Countless single celebrities and celebrity couples alike flock to the Hamptons during the summer, and there is no reason to miss out on the action. The waterfront properties, beautiful beaches, and delicious food don't have to be confined to Instagram posts of the rich and famous. Get a taste of the celebrity lifestyle by dining out at some of the great restaurants on Long Island's east end.

The food served at these Hamptons restaurants draws a date night crowd, and celebrities are no strangers to that group.

Eating Italian

If you are traveling to the east end in search of authentic Italian cuisine, you're in luck. Several restaurants in the Hamptons offer authentic Italian menus that incorporate fresh fish from surrounding waters. Serafina in East Hampton offers authentic Italian cuisine at prices that won't break the bank, and the atmosphere still has that signature laid back, beach vibe signature to the area. Also offering authentic Italian food in East Hampton is Nick & Toni's. In addition to a full dinner and dessert menu, Nick & Toni's features a long, diverse brunch menu.

From oven baked french toast to a Montauk fish burger, there is no more classic Hamptons experience than brunch at a local restaurant. The theme of Italian cuisine continues at Osteria Salina in Wainscott. The restaurant buys local from farmers and fisherman to create their Sicilian-inspired dishes.

Eating American

If you're looking for more of a classic American dish, or go-to summer foods, 75 Main in South Hampton offers a menu filled with burgers, variations on a BLT, lobster rolls, and seafood dishes. Also serving up an American style menu is the East Hampton Grill in East Hampton. Their menu features a fresh fish of the day, along with crab cakes, barbecued burgers and ribs, and some salads—including a scallop salad, a blue cheese wedge salad, and the tried and true caesar.

A true dining delight can be had at Red Bar Brasserie in South Hampton. A brasserie is characterized as an unpretentious restaurant or gathering place that serves simple and hearty food—and Red Bar seems to be just that. Like most other Hamptons eateries, they feature a menu largely based on local ingredients and freshly caught fish and seafood. Their interior differs from other hot spots in that they traded in the big windows and natural light for a more low lit dining room, but outdoor seating is also available.

These restaurants are only the tip of the iceberg for the long list of spots to choose from. While the dining experience at any of these eateries is sure to be worth remembering on its own, the chance of a celebrity sitting during your date night is definitely a bonus.

In fact, Watch What Happens Live host Andy Cohen owns a house in Noyac Bay and can be caught out and about in the Hamptons every summer. Sarah Jessica Parker and hubby Matthew Broderick own a place in Amagansett and spend their time in areas between the Hamptons and Montauk. Kelly Ripa and Jerry Seinfeld, two stars essential to NYC, often migrate out east during summer months as well. Scott Disick, former Long Island resident, helped bring the Kardashian family out to the east end during summer 2014 to film Kourtney and Khloe Take the Hamptons. Although Disick no longer resides in the Hamptons, his Long Island roots keep him and his family coming back for celebrity vacations.

Eating out in the Hamptons will either make you feel like a celebrity, or bring you face to face with one. For those who are looking for great date night food and the chance to rub elbows with the rich and famous, the Hamptons is the destination for both.

Cupid's Advice:

While it doesn't seem that any woman from the Kardashian/Jenner family is currently dating French Montana, never say never. Falling for the ex-flame or current crush of a friend or sibling tends cause issues, but in some cases can't be helped. Before you go falling for the same person as a friend or sibling, think about it:

1. This relationship will hurt your friend/sibling: Even when a friend or sibling plays it cool about you crushing on the same person they are or have in the past, they're most likely not okay with it. If you're crushing on the same person, chances are your jealous and competitive sides will be on full display. Think about the importance of your relationship with your friend or sibling, and realize that pursuing this romantic relationship will hurt the relationship you already have with your them. Chances are the crush isn't worth it.
