a-ok between the two.

In celebrity couple news, Scott Disick enjoys having the support of Kylie Jenner when it comes to his relationship. What are some ways to support your ex's new relationship?

Cupid's Advice:

With all the complicated feelings that even thinking about your ex brings, having them bring their next S.O. into the family is tricky to say the least. Jenner is supporting Disick and Richie's relationship like a mature and respectful ally. Here are relationship tips to root for your ex's new love:

1. Keep your distance: You see your ex repeating similar patterns, you don't think their new lover is treating them right, etc. It's so tempting to pinch the lovebirds on the shoulder and straighten them out. Don't do it. When you get the temptation to meddle, take a deep breath and walk away. By commenting on their current situation, you are adding your baggage with ex-bae to their new love. It's better to keep your distance here.

2. Accept their new partner: Possibly the biggest thing you can do to support their relationship is accepting their new partner. It doesn't have to be as a close confidant, though friendship is a great way to start this process. Welcome the partner into your family space and accept them as a potential life long member.

3. Show social media support: If your friends and family can see you liking and commenting on your ex's new relationship status, they're more likely to show support as well. If you're acting bitter, it's only natural they'd want to have your back and criticize the couple. Be the bigger person and show no negative will toward your ex.

everyone's lips are, "Where's Sofia?" What are some ways to keep your jealousy in check when your partner interacts with his or her ex?

Cupid's Advice:

Despite the rumors that may be flaring up because Kourtney and Scott took their kids on a vacation, Sofia seemed comfortable enough to remain home so she could attend work events. Sometimes we can't help it if our partner has to interact with their ex if they have children together. Cupid has advice on how to keep your jealousy in check:

1. Remember, your partner is with YOU: Your partner and their ex split up for a reason. Even if they are on friendly terms, you have to realize they didn't work for a reason. Your partner would not be in a relationship with you if what you have between you both isn't working.
