

Celebrity News: 'DWTS' Alan Bersten Calls Hannah Brown a 'Female Version' of Him

By Meghan Khameraj

In celebrity news, DWTS pro Alan Bersten calls Bachelorette alum a “female version” of himself, according to UsMagazine.com. Bersten also revealed, “Honestly, I’ve said it before. I just want Hannah to win...it’s incredible for a pro to get a mirror ball, but it’s all about Hannah’s journey, and she’s grown so much. Even though we’re a team, I want her to win. I guess if I’m a part of that I’ll take the mirror ball!” This potential famous couple has sparked celebrity relationship rumors since the season began in September. The rumors got even more intense after Brown brought Bersten as her date to the Country Music Awards. The pair, however, have denied that they are anything more than friends.

In celebrity news, Alan says his DWTS partner is a female version of him. What are some benefits of dating someone similar to yourself?

Cupid's Advice:

While Brown and Bersten are adamant that they are just friends, there are still many benefits of dating someone who is similar to yourself. Cupid has some relationship advice to help you determine the benefits of dating someone who is similar to you:

1. You like (and dislike) the same things: Every relationship, whether romantic or platonic, is based on the foundation that you have something in common. However, when you're dating someone who is similar to yourself you go beyond just a few common interests. You both tend to like and dislike the same things which can make decision-making much easier.

2. You can be yourself around them: There are few things worse than having to pretend that you're someone you're not. Luckily, if you and your partner are similar then there is no need to hide who you truly are. Being in a relationship with someone who is just like yourself allows you to be more free and open.

3. You finish each other's...: Sandwiches! Just kidding, sentences! More times than not, you two will be on the same page so when an issue arises you and your partner are more likely to solve the issue than argue about how to solve the issue. Besides making disagreements less frequent, being on the same page as your partner allows you to make wonderful and spontaneous memories.

'Bachelorette' Hannah Brown Runs Into Celebrity Ex Tyler Cameron at People's Choice Awards

By Hope Ankney

In the latest celebrity news, Bachelorette star Hannah Brown bumped into her celebrity ex, Tyler Cameron, at Sunday's People's Choice Awards. According to UsMagazine.com, Brown commented on their interaction before the show started, saying there was no bad blood. She discussed how sweet it was that Cameron brought his mother as his date. When asked if she was nervous about seeing him, she replied positively, "I think I have so much going on right now. I mean, I came straight from practice for the show tomorrow, so there's no place for nerves and honestly, I'm just really focused on myself right now and I'm just really glad that I am able to be here and to celebrate the nomination of the award."

These celebrity exes crossed paths at the People's Choice Awards. What are some tips for keeping your cool in the presence of an ex?

Cupid's Advice:

A break-up is never easy. It's even harder when you know you're going to have to see your ex again whether you plan on it or not. Standing in the presence of someone that you have a history with would make anyone sweat bullets, but it doesn't have to be an interaction you dread. Instead, if you're worried about keeping your blood pressure down the next time you see your ex, don't worry. Cupid has some relationship advice on how to stay as cool, calm, and collected as possible in their presence:

1. Think about the positives: If you know you're going to have to be around an ex in a public setting, make sure you don't focus on the negatives of your relationship. Associating their presence with hurt will only hinder you from having a cordial interaction with them. Try to keep your mind on the positives of your guys' time together. Then, when the time comes, you'll be level-headed enough to have a friendly passing conversation.

2. Be surrounded by friends: Being around an ex, alone, can be a daunting task. But, if you know there might be a possibility that you'll run into your ex somewhere, bring a couple of your friends to cushion the blow. You'll feel much more confident and positive being around them. And, you won't have to worry about suffering through any awkward silences that might occur.

3. Focus on yourself: The best advice to keeping your cool when you're around an ex is to do what Hannah Brown did and focus on yourself. Don't allow yourself to think too much about their presence. Keep doing what you're doing, and don't worry about them being there. This helps in alleviating the stress of seeing your ex and acting kindly towards them when you do bump into them.

Celebrity News: Peter Weber Is Named As Season 24 'Bachelor'

By Meghan Khameraj

In celebrity news, former Bachelorette contestant Peter Weber will take on the mantle as the season 24 Bachelor. Weber was previously on Hannah Brown's season of The Bachelorette and finished in third place. According to UsMagazine.com, Weber stated that Brown inspired him to take the role noting that "Brown's commitment to remaining '100 percent unapologetically herself' from night one until the final rose inspired him to pursue the same goal during his turn as the lead." Weber was a fan favorite during Brown's season, especially after she revealed that they had slept together four times in a windmill. Perhaps this time Weber will fall in love and we'll have a new celebrity couple to keep tabs on!

In celebrity news, Peter Weber is the new Bachelor. What are some unique ways to go about finding Love?

Cupid's Advice:

Peter Weber is on the search for true love. While we may not be able to go on a publicly televised search, we can still find love. If your dating history consists of relationships that seem to fizzle after the first few dates, Cupid has some dating advice to help you find love in new and exciting ways:

1. Take a class: Do you like painting? Or maybe dancing or sports? An easy way to meet someone new is to take a class on something you're interested in. If you're both in the same class that means you already have one thing in common which will make it easier to break the ice.

2. Go to parties: Maybe you can throw one or just go to one you were invited to. Parties are a relaxed environment where you can meet people with no immediate commitment. Parties are basically speed dating rounds but with good music and drinks.

Celebrity Exes: Tyler Cameron Sets the Record Straight on Feelings for 'Bachelorette' Hannah Brown

By Hope Ankney

In celebrity news, The Bachelorette runner-up, Tyler Cameron, has officially set the record straight about where he stands with Hannah Brown. According to EOnline.com, the star popped on Twitter Wednesday to dismiss claims that he had been shading The Bachelorette star. What started with an accidental liking of a tweet shading Brown ended with Cameron writing a series of tweets defending her. Sharing how much respect he had for Brown, he stated "...that girl deserves no shade and nothing but success. She empowers women and deserves all the accolades. She empowers women and created so much conversation on how women should be treated. I am grateful for our time together and all that I learned from her."

These celebrity exes are keeping their feelings positive all the way around. What do you do if your ex is throwing shade at you?

Cupid's Advice:

When an ex decides to throw shade your way, it triggers an almost immediate emotional reaction. It's hard to ignore the issue and not let it affect you or your behavior. It's even worse if this ex has thrown something like this at you before. But, is it worth giving them the satisfaction of visibly showing how upset it made you? Not at all. Take a look at a few of Cupid's suggestions for relationship advice on how to deal with an ex that is trying to shade you:

1. Delete their social media from your accounts: A big mistake people make is keeping their exes on their social media as friends, followers, etc. It not only keeps a break-up fresh, but it's easy to go on their pages and keep up with their every move. Deleting them as friends or unfollowing their accounts will help you deal with an ex that might cryptically tweet about you or like shady tweets that could be indirectly addressed towards you. In fact, after wiping them away, you might not even know they're doing it anymore.

Almost a year after his initial proposal on The Bachelorette, Jordan Rodgers proposed to JoJo Fletcher all over again. The celebrity news was revealed on Rodgers' Instagram on Saturday, featuring a photo of the couple showing off Fletcher's new rock. The caption went on to explain that their first proposal for the show was real and meant the world to both of them. However, as they began planning their wedding, they wanted to do it their own way, in private. Cue proposal number two!

Perhaps there will be a celebrity wedding on the horizon finally for this Bachelorette couple. What are some ways to make your partner feel special during a long engagement?

Cupid's Advice:

Wedding bells are in your future, but the road to the chapel is a long one. Fear not! Long engagements are challenging, but there are ways to reassure your partner and reaffirm your love during the process.:

1. Remember the date: Commit to small gestures that remind your partner you are excited for your nuptials, however far down the line they may be. Write the date with doodled hearts on your fridge's whiteboard, or leave your partner a sticky note reading "one year to go!" However you remind your significant other of your excitement, make it a fun, any day surprise.

2. Keep the romance going: Wedding planning can throw your brain into overdrive. While the details may be tempting to take over your life (and all your conversations), share a world with your partner outside of your wedding. Find a balance between excitement for your wedding and commitment to your love life by scheduling date nights where wedding talk is off the table.

3. Take small steps: Do not let your engagement drag without any planning whatsoever. Even if your wedding is set years down the line, make yourself a schedule. Try to settle at least one detail a month so that both you and your partner feel you're moving forward.

Celebrity News: 'Bachelorette' Hannah Brown Says 'Thank You, Next' to Questions about Tyler Cameron & Gigi Hadid

By Ashley Johnson

In a celebrity interview with UsMagazine.com, Hannah Brown made it clear that she is ready to take on life as a single woman after her celebrity break-up with Tyler Cameron. The reality TV star says she is focused on exploring her new opportunities as a single woman and is ready to move forward from The Bachelorette with or without a man.

In celebrity news, Hannah isn't letting anyone draw her into talks surrounding Tyler Cameron's dating life. What are some ways to move on when you see your ex moving on?

Cupid's Advice:

While all celebrity relationships do not last, the relationship you have with yourself does. We are rooting for

Hannah in her new journey! Cupid has some advice on how to move on from an ex like Hannah Brown and many other single celebrities:

1. Focus on yourself: Self-care is always the best way to go. When we take care of ourselves and give ourselves all the love and affection for a change, we realize just how much we needed it and realize that self love is enough. Focusing on yourself and taking the time to heal on your own can help you rediscover yourself and learn more about who you are. You can learn more about your likes, dislikes, and everything in between.

2. Enjoy your hobbies and friends: Just taking the time to do things you enjoy again can remind you what you really value in life. You can now focus all your time and energy on everything you have ever wanted to do, whether it be painting, going to concerts, traveling the world, or spending more time with friends. Friends are there for you when you need them the most. They can help distract you from your ex and past relationship and can be a shoulder to lean on when you just need to vent.

3. Take a break from social media: Focusing on yourself means you can't have any distractions. Social media is the easiest way to stay up to date with your friends, and unfortunately, your ex. With just one click you can get lost in your ex's feed. Being single means you now have time to focus on yourself, not your ex and their whereabouts. Embrace the distance from your ex... this may even mean blocking or unfollowing them on all social media for the time being.

Celebrity News: Hannah Brown's 'Bachelorette' Runner-Up Goes On Date with Gigi Hadid Days After Spending Night with Hannah

By Ashley Johnson

In each and every season of The Bachelorette, former bachelors and bachelorettes alike (along with a few athletes) inevitably make their highly anticipated return to the show to drop some relationship truth. Whether it's Ben Higgins having a one-on-one with Colton Underwood or Hannah Brown sitting court-side with Jaylen Brown, the singles are coached on "finding the one" and what to look for in a significant other. However, this is no simple task and may include a lot of casual dating before getting serious with anybody and making that commitment. According to UsMagazine.com, on Sunday, August 4, in celebrity news, Tyler Cameron and Gigi Hadid were spotted together on what appeared to be their first date night ever in NYC, just two days after The Bachelorette runner-up was seen leaving Hannah Brown's apartment in L.A.

In celebrity news, Tyler Cameron isn't committed to Hannah and is dating around. What are some things to be careful about when you're dating around?

Cupid's Advice:

While Tyler seems to have been getting cozy with more than one woman (Gigi Hadid being one of them) and seems to be living a true bachelor life outside of reality TV, Cupid has some dating advice on how to date around like the model himself and other single celebrities:

- 1. Be transparent: Being transparent means being truthful and being clear about your intentions. Sometimes being honest with people can be difficult, but you are not going to get what you want out of any relationship by hiding your true feelings. Relationships only work when the people involved are on the same page and have both of their wants and needs met.

Related Link: Celebrity News: 'Bachelorette' Hannah Brown Speaks Out About Jed After Finale

2. Have patience: As we know from many years of The Bachelor and Bachelorette, you do not just fall in love on the first date (or maybe you do), and dating is a process. It is highly unlikely you are going to commit to one person after just one date, and you may find yourself going on numerous dates with numerous people until you find what you are looking for, and that is okay. You just have to be patient!

Related Link: New Celebrity Couple Shawn Mendes & Camila Cabello Kiss in Miami

3. Take the time to discover yourself: Use the opportunity of getting to know various new people to also get to know more about yourself. By intimately being exposed to all different personalities and behaviors, you are going to find some that you absolutely love, and others that you absolutely cannot stand. Dating different people only reaffirms your own wants and needs, and helps you figure out what you want more of (or less of) in life.

Celebrity News: Tyler Cameron Addresses Future with

'Bachelorette' Hannah Brown

By Mara Miller

Tyler Cameron addressed his future with Bachelorette Hannah Brown after she asked him out during the show's two-part season finale, according to UsMagazine.com in celebrity news. Does this mean there's a possible celebrity couple on the horizon? On Tuesday, July 30, Brown opted to make a "bold gesture" when she suggested the pair "go for a drink" on Nick Viall's "Viall Files" podcast. Cameron responded that he would love to and he wants to take things slow.

In celebrity news, Tyler is looking to take things with Hannah “one day at a time.” What are some ways to take things slowly in your relationship?

Cupid’s Advice:

Amidst speculation that Tyler Cameron may be the next lead man for The Bachelor, things may change if he keeps things going with Hannah Brown. We hope the best for these two! Cupid has some advice on how to take things slowly like Hannah and Tyler:

1. Have self-discipline: Taking things slow means you’re allowed to step back and think about your dating situation before you commit to anything. Don’t rush into bed, living together, or constantly text each other because you’re worried your potential partner will lose interest. Be sure to keep your head on straight before listening to your heart.

2. Be honest with each other: Honesty truly is the best policy, so be honest with your partner about why you want to take things slow. Maybe you want to get to know them better or you’ve been burned by an ex in the past, so you want to be ready you can go all-in before you take your relationship further.

3. Longer lasting relationship: Taking things slowly with each other will mean your relationship has the potential to last much longer than those moving their relationship much faster.

You'll have time to build a solid foundation and partnership so you can work together as a team in your relationship and that means it could last for the rest of your lives together.

New Celebrity Couple? 'Bachelorette' Hannah Brown Gushes Over Tyler Cameron After Finale

By Bonnie Griffin

In the latest celebrity news, Bachelorette Hannah Brown gushed over Tyler Cameron on Jimmy Kimmel Live. According to UsMagazine.com, Brown said, “he is pretty great” referring to Cameron. After a devastating break up with Jed Wyatt, it looks like Brown might be ready to give her ex, Cameron, another shot at a relationship.

With one break-up comes a new beginning for this soon-to-be celebrity couple. What are some ways to know whether to give your ex a second chance?

Cupid's Advice:

For these reality tv stars, it is starting to look like they are going to be giving their romance a second chance.

Sometimes time and space gives us a new perspective and makes us realize what we lost. Cupid has some advice to help you know when to give your ex a second chance:

1. You can see yourself with them as a part of your future:

When you think about your ex do you picture the two of you together? Can you imagine what your life would be like as a couple in the future? These are signs you might want to give your ex a second chance. If you can honestly see them as your partner for life it is worth giving the relationship another shot.

2. You're happier with them: When you spend time with your ex are you happier than you are with anyone else? And being with them makes you happier than being single. Then give them a second chance. A little time apart to realize what you loved about them may be all you needed to make your relationship a lasting love.

3. They made an effort to change: Consider why you broke up in the first place. Maybe they had a fear of commitment or they liked to party too much. If you see that they've made a solid effort and have changed those bad habits then a second chance at a relationship might be worth a shot.

Celebrity News: 'Bachelorette' Hannah Brown Speaks Out About Jed After Finale

By Bonnie Griffin

In the latest celebrity news, Bachelorette Hannah Brown ended her engagement to Jed Wyatt. Five weeks after their engagement, Brown was heartbroken to find out that her relationship with Wyatt began with lies when she discovered he had a girlfriend when he first entered the show. According to People.com, Brown said finding out Wyatt hadn't been honest was "heartbreaking" and that by being dishonest "he hurt [her] worse than anybody else did."

In celebrity news, Hannah wasn't willing to settle once she found out Jed had been dishonest with her. What are some ways to know your partner is lying to you?

Cupid's Advice:

For these reality tv stars, happy ever after is no longer in their future. Wyatt's dishonesty broke Brown's heart and left her unable to forgive him for the hurt he caused her. It is never good when you find out that someone you love has lied to you. Cupid has some advice to help you know when your partner is lying to you:

1. They say they never lie: Anyone who tells you that they never lie is lying to you. It is common for everyone to tell little white lies from time to time. Sometimes these kind of lies are okay because they are meant to protect someone's feelings or something of that nature. Getting caught in a small lie like that wouldn't have any real consequences. We all tell these kinds of lies, so an honest partner would have no reason to insist they never lie at all.

Related Link: Celebrity News: 'Bachelorette' Hannah Brown Releases Intimate Details in Front of Peter's Mom!

2. Lack of eye contact: One of the tell-tale signs of lying that is upheld as true by science is when someone refuses to make eye contact. If your partner is normally someone who makes eye contact with you when you're talking, and now they are avoiding that eye contact it is a good indicator they aren't being honest about something.

Related Link: Celebrity Wedding: 'Vanderpump Rules' Stars Tom Schwartz & Katie Maloney Get Official Marriage License in Vegas 2 Years After Wedding

3. They accuse you of lying: One of the oldest tricks in the books is to try to get the focus off them by pointing their finger at you. Your partner might accuse you of lying or cheating out of the blue. This blame game is often a way to try to justify their own dishonest actions.

What are some things you look for if you think your partner is being dishonest? Let us know your thoughts in the comments below.

Celebrity News:
'Bachelorette' Hannah Brown
Releases Intimate Details in Front of Peter's Mom!

By Katie Sotack

The infamous Bachelorette windmill sex scene between Hannah and Peter was one of the most talked about moments this season. But according to UsMagazine.com, Hannah fudged the details. When facing off with Luke Parker, The Bachelorette confessed to having sex with Peter twice at the mill, yet apparently it was four times! Hannah announced this proudly in front of the studio audience, which included Peter's family. Still, despite (or maybe because of) the scandalous details, Peter's family could not have looked prouder as the audience gave the pair a standing ovation.

In celebrity news, Hannah Brown didn't hold any details back while talking to Peter on a recent episode of The Bachelorette. What are some benefits to being open about intimacy?

Cupid's Advice:

In our Puritan-grown culture, it's not wildly accepted to talk about intimacy in public. However, American youth culture is shifting to see the perks in being open and honest about intimacy. Here's how talking about intimacy can benefit yourself and others:

1. Normalization: Talking about intimacy normalizes said acts of intimacy. America's sensationalized media presents idealistic versions of sex and love, which do not match up with reality. With this idealized standard we rarely see an accurate representation of our own intimacy. The girl and guy are perfect, never having bad sex or weird sex. Not to mention a lack non-heteronormative relationships depicting physical love. Talking about sex and the intimate acts surrounding it can ease the tension our culture feels around sexual 'imperfections' which fall short of idealistic standards.

Related Link: Celebrity News: Ben Higgins Says 'Bachelorette' Hannah Brown's Sex Confessions Are 'Confusing'

2. Ease the guilt: There's a famous Sex In The City episode where Miranda takes a lover who's so petrified of sex being a sin, that after every time they've been physical he must run to shower. Yeah, this was filmed in the '90s, but times haven't changed too much. Bachelorette Hannah Brown was thoroughly slut shamed by contestant Luke P. for enjoying sex with men she'd fallen in love with. By speaking out about about her experience at the windmill while in a supportive environment she was championed for something that had once penalized her.

3. Better sex: As sexologist Lindsey Doe likes to point out sex and sexuality are never one size fits all. But that's the way our culture likes to think about it, so partner's have been conditioned to fall short of our unique needs. Being open about your likes, dislikes, and experiences will not only work like a handbook for better sex but help to foster emotional intimacy between you and your partner(s).

As for Luke, he mostly minced words and contradicted himself in between commercial breaks.

In celebrity news, Bachelorette Hannah Brown faced Luke Parker after the explosive end to their relationship. What are some ways to get closure after a relationship ends?

Cupid's Advice:

At the end of the relationship, there are steps to be taken to ease the painful process. Instead of wondering "what if?" find ways to deal with your feelings and move on. Here are relationship tips to find closure:

1. Wallow: In the wake of your devastating breakup give yourself permission to wallow for an allotted time period. Take Friday off and watch your favorite movies while binging on ice cream. Or, call up your mom and talk about what happened. Allow yourself to feel all the confusing and painful emotions that come with ending a relationship so that you can make peace inside your head.

Related Link: Celebrity News: Ben Higgins Says 'Bachelorette' Hannah Brown's Sex Confessions Are 'Confusing'

2. Seek socialization: After your weekend of wallowing, call your friends and go outside. Being around outside energy will widened your perspective and help you to see the world outside of your old relationship. Whether you want to go dancing or browse the local bookstore absorb the positive vibes around you and be mindful of the now.

3. Talk to your ex: When the time comes, speak to your ex to find closure. This step should only be taken after you've processed the bulk of your emotions and can be trusted to converse calmly without blame or aggression. Meet for coffee or somewhere else public to discuss the demise of your situation. Go in knowing that the goal is not to get your relationship back but rather to hear out the other person and grow from their experience with you.

In Bachelorette news, former Bachelor Ben Higgins is confused by Hannah Brown's sex confessions in the most recent episode of her season. On a podcast interview with Bachelor Nation, Higgins admitted that Brown's statements on whether having sex on the show was a wise decision seem contradictory. According to UsMagazine.com, this news comes right after Brown and contestant Parker participated in a raging fight on screen and social media war off screen on the issue of sex with multiple partners.

In celebrity news, Ben Higgins is confused about Hannah's seemingly conflicting sex admissions. How do you know when it's the right time to get physical with your partner?

Cupid's Advice:

Have you ever been dating someone and wondered, "When's the right time to hookup?" What's too soon, and what will they think of me if we wait a long time? Here is relationship advice on getting intimate:

1. Are you turned on?: The number one requirement to figuring out the right time to be intimate is being aroused. If you're feeling your partner, the environment, and the contraceptive measures are at your minimum requirements at least, you might be ready to get physical. There is still some question on whether this is the right time for you emotionally, but desire is the number one box to be checked off.

2. Don't be pressured: Just because your friend slept with their partner on the first date and your other friend waits until the 10th to get it on, doesn't mean these timelines are right for you. Only you and your sexual partner can decide on the who, what, when, where, and why of your sex life.

3. Ignore all advice: Physical intimacy is different for everyone. Sexuality is like a snowflake – everybody's special and there's no one size fits all. Cupid's Advice:

This celebrity couple shared their romantic beach proposal with fans on Instagram. There are many places you can propose that add to the romance of asking someone to spend their life with you. Cupid has some advice on romantic proposal locations:

1. The beach: Who doesn't love a beautiful beach proposal. Try aiming for evening or dusk, when the sun is creating a beautiful glow in the sky, helping to set the mood. Bring a blanket and bottle of wine to add to the romance before bending to one knee.

On the most recent episode, Hannah Brown revealed to Tyler that despite their intense physical chemistry, she wanted to put sex on hold while they built a stronger emotional bond. Tyler's response, according to EOnline.com, was what stole fans' hearts, saying, "I would never press you or pressure you at all." Tyler clearly knows how to show a lady respect.

In celebrity news, Tyler C. stole the hearts of Bachelor Nation. What are some ways to know your partner respects you?

Cupid's Advice:

The interaction between these reality tv stars shows us that chivalry is not dead, and respect is something everyone should expect from their partner. Cupid has some advice on ways to know your partner respects you:

1. They really listen to you: One great sign of respect is having a partner who listens to you. They don't just hear what you say but are actively engaged in listening when you talk and they carefully respond after taking time to think things through.

Celebrity News: 'Bachelorette' Hannah Brown's Sexy Windmill Scene Revealed

By Bonnie Griffin

In the latest celebrity news, Bachelorette Hannah Brown's awaited sexy windmill scene aired. Fans were surprised to learn that the guy who'd landed in the windmill with Brown was Peter Weber and not Jed Wyatt. The unique location of the windmill scene made it clear who Brown had been referring to with her earlier statements, and according to UsMagazine.com, Brown confirmed she slept with Weber twice as he bragged the next morning, "We are one now."

In celebrity news, the now-infamous windmill scene on the most recent episode of The Bachelorette didn't feature who everyone expected. What are some ways to spice up your love life?

Cupid's Advice:

For these reality tv stars, a windmill added some spice to their romantic tryst. Whether it is location or just trying something new, everyone likes to spice things up in the bedroom from time to time. Cupid has some advice to keep the spice in your love life:

1. Change the scene: Every romantic encounter doesn't have to happen in the bedroom. Try moving things to the living room in front of the fireplace when it is cold out. Or you could just set the scene for romance with candles and romantic music.

Celebrity News: 'Bachelor' Alum Colton Underwood Reacts to Hannah Brown's Sex Confession

By Bonnie Griffin

In celebrity news, Bachelor alum Colton Underwood reacted positively to Hannah Brown's admission to having sex in a windmill on the current season of The Bachelorette. According to UsMagazine.com, Underwood says the differences between the seasons of The Bachelor and The Bachelorette are "what's so cool about the Bachelor franchise, [because] everybody has their own twists to things." In Underwood's season, he was scrutinized for being a virgin, the complete opposite of the scrutiny that Brown has seen over her admission to having sex with a contestant. These celebs show us that everyone makes different choices and has different tastes when it comes to sex, but it is nice to see these two owning their choices.

In celebrity news, former Bachelor Colton reacted to current Bachelorette Hannah's sex confession. How do you make sure you and your partner are on the same page with intimacy?

Cupid's Advice:

Everyone has different sexual appetites. Sometimes those differences can happen between two partners in a relationship, but that doesn't mean you can't work things out. Cupid has some advice to help you make sure you're on the same page as your partner in the bedroom:

1. Talk about it: The number one way for you and your partner to ensure you're on the same page about intimacy is to have an open discussion. Tell them what you like and listen when they tell you the same. If you're both open to talking it through, the act can be much more pleasurable for both of you in the end.

Celebrity News: Rachel Lindsay Says She's Surprised 'Bachelorette' Hannah Brown was 'So Bold' About Sex

By Mara Miller

In the latest celebrity news, Rachel Lindsay said she's surprised Bachelorette Hannah Brown was "so bold" about sex after she admitted she slept with a contestant in a windmill on a celebrity date, according to UsMagazine.com. “I’m gonna assume that they’re alluding to what happened in the fantasy suite. I mean, I was surprised she was so bold and forthcoming with it,” Lindsay told Micheal Strahan and guest co-host KeKe Palmer on ABC’S Strahan and Sarah on Tuesday, July 9. “But I mean, she owns it, so more power to her.”

In celebrity news, Rachel Lindsay is surprised that Hannah Brown was so bold and open about having sex on The Bachelorette. What are some positives to being open about intimacy?

Cupid’s Advice:

There are some benefits to being open about intimacy with someone who has the potential to become your partner. Here are Cupid’s tips on positives to being open about intimacy:

1. Earn respect: Whether you’re being open about honesty to earn respect or because you want to gauge how much your potential partner will respect your views on intimacy, being open about your sex life can tell you a lot about someone by the way they react to the conversation. This can be the difference between finding your life partner or just another online date who will ghost you in after a few dates because you wouldn’t sleep with them.

2. Get what you want: Being open about intimacy will ensure your partner or potential partner know what you expect. You need to have a conversation before you're intimate with them. What do you do if birth control fails? What if they want to do something weird you don't want to try in bed? Are you worried about sexually transmitted infections? Would it make you feel better if you're both tested before you take the next step to play it on the safe side? The only way you will be able to communicate any of this is to be open about intimacy.

3 Self-confidence: Confidence is sexy. Just don't confuse it with being cocky, which can bring an opposite reaction than what you might expect when you're confident. Being open about sex will give you a sense of confidence you haven't experienced before. You know you're sexy and you know what you want from your partner. Don't dance around the subject: own it.

Celebrity News: Jed's Mom Tells Hannah He's Not Ready to Get Engaged On 'The

Bachelorette'

By Bonnie Griffin

In celebrity news, Jed Wyatt's family suggested on The Bachelorette he should follow his music dreams instead of focusing on his relationship with Hannah Brown. Wyatt's mother seemed to be skeptical of the couple, and according to UsMagazine.com, his entire family "was floored that Jed could be considering an engagement when his passion for his music was top of mind." In relationships, our parents do not always have the same dreams for us as we do, and this is one celebrity couple that would be starting their relationship with Wyatt's family trying to stand in their way.

In celebrity news, Jed Wyatt's mom is skeptical of a potential engagement at the end of The Bachelorette. What do you do if your parents don't support your relationship?

Cupid's Advice:

Relationships come with many obstacles, and unfortunately, family opposition sometimes plays a huge part. When your parents don't support your relationship there are a few ways you can get past their opposition and keep your relationship strong. Cupid has some advice to keep your relationship strong even if your parents don't support you:

1. Respect your parents: You may not agree with your parents' disapproval of your relationship, but remember they are the people who raised you. They relied on their values and beliefs to raise you and help you become the person you are. Their concern is another sign of their love. You don't have to leave your relationship because of their opinion, but try not to start an argument or be disrespectful.

3. Bring your partner around your parents more: If your parents don't initially approve of your partner give them the chance to get to know them better. Bring your partner around your parents more often. Take them to family dinner or invite your parents over for dinner with you and your partner. Give them a chance to get to know your partner better and hopefully they will begin to see how much you care for them and learn to be supportive.

Cupid's Advice:

Keeping a relationship interesting and intimate can get put on the back burner as life gets busier, your relationship evolves and you're no longer in the honeymoon phase. It is easy to become complacent on the romantic front when things like work and children take up so much of your time. Spicing up your relationship can be done with the smallest gestures. Cupid has some advice to keep spice things up even in a long-term relationship:

1. Make eye contact: One of the most intimate things between partners is making eye contact. If you want to keep the intimacy alive try this easy tip and make eye contact with your partner when you say, "I love you."

2. Smile when you see them walk into the room: A big part of keeping things spiced up in your relationship is finding the small ways to make your partner happy; to make them feel appreciated and loved, even without words. Something as simple as a smile when they enter a room or you see them walk through the door when they come home at the end of their workday will make them feel warm and loved.

Celebrity News: Luke P. Loses His Temper with Garrett on 'The Bachelorette'

By Katie Sotack

The drama never ceases on this season of The Bachelorette, and this week's episode was no exception. According to UsMagazine.com, Hannah Brown was forced to make a hard decision between Luke P. and Garrett after their fearsome fight. As usual, Luke had used the group date as a way to belittle the other men, and Garrett was fed up. After warning Luke that his "time was coming to an end," Garrett ended up with a lap full of bologna as Luke P. screamed in his face. The tension ran high at the rose ceremony when Luke P. and Garrett were the last two left without their red petals. Ultimately, Hannah gave a rose to Luke, who laughed as Garrett exited the set.

In celebrity news, Luke P. lost his cool with Garrett in the most recent episode of The Bachelorette, showing his true colors. What are some ways to handle an angry partner?

Cupid's Advice:

In any relationship, romantic or otherwise, anger is normal. Feelings of resentment, jealousy, or sadness can bubble up in a red hot rage. Knowing the right course of action to deal with an angry partner can be a challenge. Here are tips to calm the emotional forest fires in your partner:

1. Be patient: When your significant other is losing their cool it's important to remember this isn't about you. It can be easy to take offense to yelling or hurtful tones, but instead focus on what they're trying to say. Chances are they're truly hurt and not expressing it properly.

3. Know when to call it quits: If your partner's always operating at the red hot level and you're left feeling hurt, it's time to end it. Anger is a normal response in small doses. However if your partner's always running off the rails and you feel more bullied than loved, it's not healthy. You can't fix someone's emotional baggage, no matter how much you love them, and if this anger is dragging you down it's time to go.

Cupid's Advice:

Sometimes it can be hard to tell if your partner is as committed to your relationship as you are. When you care for someone deeply you want to know that they are in it as much as you. There are signs you can look out for if you want to know if your partner is committed. Cupid has some advice to help you decide if your partner is committed:

1. You enjoy spending lots of time together: Life is busy, but at the end of the day you and your partner should be spending the majority of your free time together. Not only should you be together, but you should be content and happy to be around each other and genuinely enjoy each other's company.

According to UsMagazine.com, Cameron clapped back at Taylor after he said that “[Hannah doesn’t] have to dry hump em all,” accusing Taylor of using this as a way to stay relevant. Cameron is one reality tv star willing to stand up against Taylor’s attempt at slut shaming.

In celebrity news, one of the guy’s still competing for Bachelorette Hannah Brown’s heart has had enough of James Taylor’s slut shaming comments. What are some ways to stand up for your partner?

Cupid's Advice:

When you're in a relationship, you want to see your partner happy. If someone is saying or doing things that hurt them, you want to stop what is causing their pain. Cupid has some advice when it comes to standing up for your partner:

1. Don't allow people to talk down to them in front of you:

You may have fallen in love with your partner, but that doesn't mean your friends or family have. There may be times when someone in your circle treats your partner like they don't deserve you, or talks down to them. It is important that you step in right away. You want to set the precedent you will not allow them to treat your partner disrespectfully.

2. Shut down negative influencers: Not everyone will say the negative things they think in front of your partner. Some will save their opinions to share with you when your partner is not around. Do not feed their negative opinions by listening and allowing them to say whatever they want. Shut down their negative talk right away, and make them aware that you won't tolerate it in the future. You chose your partner for a reason; don't let other people's negativity influence your feelings in your relationship.

3. Be on their side: There could be times when someone in your circle of friends or family says or does something to your partner that upsets them when you're not there to stop it. If your partner lets you know they've been hurt by something a family member or friend did or said to them, make sure they know you have their back. Call the friend or family member and discuss the incident and make it clear it was upsetting and unacceptable. You don't have to be mean; have a respectful conversation, but make it clear that such actions cannot continue.

Celebrity News: 'Bachelorette' Front Runner Jed's Ex Details Heartbreak & Being Ghosted

By Katie Sotack

In celebrity news, Bachelorette front runner Jed had a girl at home when he left for the show and broke her heart. Jed and his ex, Haley Stevens, are both country singers who fell in love before Jed was accepted onto The Bachelorette. According to UsMagazine.com, Jed went on the show as a way to publicize his music, and Haley didn't want to hold him back from any show biz opportunity. However, the six weeks of filming and two weeks after with no phone call from Jed devastated Haley. When the ex celebrity couple ran into each other at CMA Fest, few words were exchanged and Haley knew they were finished.

In celebrity news, all may not be as it seems with Bachelorette favorite Jed Wyatt. What are some ways to know if your new partner is being genuine?

Cupid's Advice:

When falling in love there's no guarantee. The possibility of pain is around every corner. However there are tell tale signs that your partner is the real deal. Here is dating advice on how to tell if they're leading you on:

1. Listen to your gut: First things first, always listen to your gut. If there's a nagging feeling from something primal in your body, it's probably right. Do a little investigative work into what instinct is telling you.

2. Listen to what they're really saying: If you find yourself in a Haley situation, where your partner is saying 'I love you' but keeping the door to others open: actions speak louder than words. Some people will say anything to keep something good around, but remember that the way someone treats you is the true test to if they value you.

3. Listen to others: So your friends and family raise an eyebrow every time you tell a story about your flailing significant other. Clearly they think this partner's not good enough for you. If their reasons go beyond the shallow (ie: money, looks, etc.) then put stock into what they're saying. They want someone to treat you right even more than you do.
