What are some creative ways to incorporate dancing in your relationship?

Cupid's Advice:

When life gets in the way it may be hard for you and your partner to find ways to let loose and have a little fun. Consider these three suggestions from Cupid on how you can add more dance into your relationship:

1. Ballroom dancing: You and your partner should consider taking a ballroom dancing class or joining a club. It's an easy way to have some fun with your partner while also burning some calories.

TLC's Chilli Says Usher Was Her First 'Real Love'

By Kerri Sheehan

Rozonda “Chilli” Thomas of the girl group TLC revealed that her two-year relationship with R&B singer Usher was not what inspired his 2004 album Confessions. In an interview with UsMagazine.com Thomas said, “We were together when he recorded that album. All of those songs on Confessions, that was about Jermaine Dupri’s situation. Usher was just singing it. But people kind of bought into it, it was just the timing of our breakup when the album came out.” She also said that the two broke up because it was just the time, but he was her first real adult love. She affirmed that she would always love Usher despite that the two broke up in 2003.

What are some surefire signs that you’re in love?

Cupid’s Advice:

Let Cupid help you decide if your love is for real:

1. Butterflies: When you're truly in love you can feel it in your heart. Even if you've been dating for years they should still have the ability to give you internal butterflies.

2. You don't question it: If you're truly in love then you shouldn't even have to ask this question. When you feel the love you know it and you want the world to know.

3. You're truly happy: When you've found the one you everything else in your life should fall into place with time. If being with your mate feels like too much work then one of you is probably in it for the wrong reason.

Usher Opens Up About His Heated Custody Battle

By Erin Minty

Usher is finally sharing the story of the heated custody battle he went through with his ex, Tameka Foster. UsMagazine.com reports that the claims have now been settled after three years, and Usher was rewarded primary custody of the couple's two sons, Usher V, 4, and Naviyd, 3, on August 24th. Usher has agreed to open up about his custody battle for the first time to Oprah on Oprah's Next Chapter, which aired September 16th. "This will be the only time that I've ever chosen to speak about it. I've been a man of integrity throughout the entire process, which I hope my boys will understand," Usher told host Oprah Winfrey.

How do you make sure your custody battle doesn't affect your kids?

Cupid's Advice:

Custody battles can be extremely difficult, and things can get heated between you and your ex. Making sure your kids stay out of it, however, is extremely important. Cupid has some advice:

1. Don't talk about it in front of them: While the custody battle is probably the most important thing on your mind, you should never be talking about it in front of your kids. You don't want to drag them into the drama, so don't say something bad about your ex or what is happening in court in front of your children.

2. Remain civil: things may get out of hand and you may really dislike your partner at this time, but it is important not to show that side to your kids. Try to remain civil with your partner when your kids are involved.

3. Act like nothing is wrong: Treating your kids like nothing has changed is the only way to keep them comfortable during this confusing time. If they have questions, answer them as best you can, but otherwise continue about your daily life, as you would have before the drama started.

MTV's Video Music Awards: What You Missed

By Jessica DeRubbo

Well, the MTV Video Music Awards have come and gone yet again, and the celebs in attendance this year didn't disappoint!

Some of the more notable duos walking the white carpet this year were Justin Bieber & Selena Gomez, Usher & Justin Bieber, Jersey Shore's Ronnie & Vinnie and Stephanie Pratt & Lo Bosworth, according to Hollywood Life. And, of course, there was the much-anticipated awards show participants Taylor Swift and Kanye West. After last year's debacle where West barged on stage during Swift's acceptance speech, he was on his best behavior. The two stars separately sang two brand new songs addressing last year's event, "like a pair of dueling attorneys making closing statements in front of a jury," according to Tris McCall at the New Jersey Star-Ledger.

That's not to leave out the host of this year's VMA extravaganza. E!'s popular comedienne Chelsea Handler took the podium, and the question is: how did she measure up?

Here are three reviews that seem to sum it up:

1. "As the live portion of the show began, Handler turned in a moderately funny Gaga sendup, appearing amid red-lycra-clad dancers wearing a dollhouse on her head. Though, again, it felt a little like Host the VMAs Paint-by-Numbers – Gaga’s both the easiest and the lamest (not to mention the most willing) target around,” said Jennifer Armstrong in Entertainment Weekly’s PopWatch.

2. “And then there was the awkward plight of the night’s host, Chelsea Handler. She was among the worst in the show’s history – purposefully out-of-touch, with brief, alarming flashes of off-color racial humor,” said Jon Caramanica of the New York Times.

3. “But there was little smooching or feuding on Sunday, despite some nudging from the host. ‘I want to encourage everyone to be on their worst behavior,’ comedian Chelsea Handler declared in her opening monologue, a string of flat punch lines that felt a few degrees below crass,” said Chris Richards in The Washington Post’s Click Track.

Although the VMAs usually make for some stories full of cat fights and on-stage duels, the show was pretty tame overall this year. But with the best ratings since 2002, according to Just Jared, Chelsea Handler can’t complain!
