By Nicole Maher

In the latest celebrity news, Vanderpump Rules stars Tom Sandoval and Ariana Madix revealed they weren't invited to any of their co-stars' gender reveal parties. According to UsMagazine.com, the celebrity couple didn't make the guest list for at least three gender reveal parties hosted by their co-stars. However, Sandoval and Madix were not the only couples excluded from these gatherings, as cast member Scheana Shay and her boyfriend Brock Davies also weren't invited to one of the parties.

In celebrity news, the drama is heating up off-screen for current and former Vanderpump Rules stars. How do you decide who to invite to important events in your life?

Cupid's Advice:

Social gathering restrictions or not, it can be hard to narrow down the guest list for important events in your life. While you may not be looking to hurt anyone's feelings, leaving someone off the guest list can cause drama. If you are looking for ways to decide who to invite to important events, Cupid has some advice for you:

1. Establish a limit: The first step in planning a gathering is to determine how many people you want to invite. If the event you are hosting is at a venue, this number may already be established for you. Don't let the pressure of feeling the need to invite everyone overpower how many people you actually want in attendance.

2. Make a priority list: After establishing a number of people, you need to decide who exactly you want to invite by creating a priority list. If the event involves more than one person, such as a gender reveal or wedding, make sure each host has a priority list of about the same length.

3. Acknowledge others after: In the world of social media, it's impossible to have a party without people who weren't invited finding out about it eventually. Rather than ignoring these people, try to make them feel included in some way. By creating a post thanking all those in attendance and those who showed their support through social media, you will make everyone feel like they had a part in your event, even if they weren't there in person.

Cupid's Advice:

Congrats, you're engaged! Among the excitement as you rush to the alter, planning every last detail can feel like a juggling act. Here are some must haves before you say 'I do'.

1. The License: Learn your lesson from Tom and Katie and get a license. This is perhaps the most essential piece to a successful wedding, considering it confirms the actual marriage. personalize your nuptials?

Your wedding is ultimately about you and your partner joining together. So it makes sense to personalize the ceremony and reception to reflect who you are as a couple. Here are some ways to add character to your wedding day:

1. Honor those who've passed: You may have a close relative who has passed away. That doesn't mean they can't be a part of your special day. Take a tip from Jax, whose father passed, and save a special seat with a photo or poem for your loved one. Consider dedicating that spot to their ashes or a rose.

This way you can spend that time with your S.O. and your closed friends to celebrate your marriage.

Restaurant Review: SUR Restaurant & Lounge in LA Is a One-of-a-Kind Dining Experience

By Bre Gajewski

In West Hollywood, just a block off of Melrose Avenue lies SUR Restaurant & Lounge, a beautifully designed space with several unique rooms, a charming wait-staff and delicious food.

Restaurant Review: SUR
Restaurant is serving up delectable Southern European cuisine, making you feel like you have traveled abroad without leaving LA.

An elegant dining area at SUR

SUR is owned by two couples: Guillermo Zapata (the original owner) and his wife Natalie alongside Lisa Vanderpump and Ken Todd, whom you may know from hit reality TV show Real Housewives of Beverly Hills and Vanderpump Rules. In fact, the latter show follows the employees at SUR as they build their futures.

The owners of SUR restaurant: Ken Todd, Lisa Vanderpump, Guillermo Zapata and Nathalie Zapata

Lori Bizzoco, Founder and Executive Editor of Cupid's Pulse, recently had the opportunity to not only meet Guillermo and the staff at SUR, but also to enjoy a meal when she was in Los Angeles last week. "What you see on the show does not depict the politeness and attentiveness of the staff," said Bizzoco. "We were definitely expecting to see some more drama but everyone we met were so sweet."

Lori Bizzoco, Guillermo Zapata and Tonia DeCosimo at SUR

It turns out that the ambiance at SUR truly stands up to its name: Sexy Unique Restaurant. Each smaller room in this large venue creates an intimate dining setting. Along with its indoor dining, SUR also has a romantic outdoor patio and a chic private-party room. "It was beautifully decorated with fresh flowers everywhere," Bizzoco mused. "It felt like I was in an old mansion or walking through a Victorian maze. There was room after room, each one more elegant than the last."

One of the many dining rooms at SUR

Outside of the ambiance, the food is what makes this restaurant stand out. Bizzoco had the opportunity to try out various items from the SUR menu. She started out with the Chicken Steamed Dumplings and Fried Goat Cheese appetizers, which were both delicious.

Bizzoco also tried the Shrimp Risotto, which she described as “incredible” in addition to the Jumbo Shrimp Fettuccine. “The shrimp melted in your mouth, and the fettuccine was so creamy and smooth,” she said.

Roasted Salmon Dish

That being said, Bizzoco's favorite dish was the Roasted Natural Salmon depicted above. "It was amazing," she said. "Beautifully seared on the outside and so moist on the inside that it melted right in my mouth."

With its beautiful ambiance, seasoned wait-staff, and delicious menu, SUR definitely stands up to its self-description as being on the "cutting-edge of style and cuisine." Dining at SUR (or even just stopping in for drinks) is an experience unlike any other.

As exciting as weddings are, they are super stressful. Big or small, weddings are not only expensive, but time consuming. Cupid has some advice on how to make planning a wedding less stressful:

1. Set a date: You don't have to set the date the day you get engaged but discussing when you would like to get married helps. If you and your now fiancé want to wait a year or two, it helps you to build a time frame of when to things get done. Knowing the time of year and what year you would like to say "I do," will also help you with figuring out venues, receptions, as well as other arrangements.

2. Start early: Do yourself a favor and start early! While you don't have to start as soon as you get engaged, determining the time of year you would like to have your special day helps. Availability and estimates are important so you can piece things together and essentially be able to enjoy your special day the way you want.

This celebrity break-up left us with mixed feelings. How do you know when it's time to break up with your partner?

Cupid's Advice:

There are clearly not any tell-tale signs that it is time to break-up with your partner. Jax thought it was the best idea at the time but then he realized he was wrong. Yet, there is not a right or wrong answer to anything. You can only do what feels right in your heart in the moment. But, there are some specific indications that the relationship you are in may not be the best for you right now:

1. You find yourself wanting to do other things than spend time with your partner: If you would seriously rather lay in your bed and watch Netflix alone then go out with your boo, then that may be a problem. It is understandable to want your alone time sometimes, but it should not feel like a chore to go spend time with the one you love.

2. You bicker about everything: It is okay to not agree with your partner all the time, but if it has come to a point where bickering is draining both you and your partner, you need to have a talk. Are you bickering about small things all the time because there is something big that is bothering you both deep down? Be open and honest with each other and try to get your relationship happiness back before it is too late.

3. You constantly think about what else is out there: Is there someone out there who likes painting as much as I do? Do all partners snore so loud? Your loved one's traits should be endearing to you. It definitely may be time for a break-up if you constantly fantasize about if other people may be a better fit for you. Remember that everything is what you make of it. If you find yourself feeling this way but you do want to make it work, you can! You two just have to try together to get back on the right track. But if you find yourself feeling like this and it makes you realize that you really do not see a future with this person, then end it and be confident that your true love is out there and you will find them soon.

This celebrity news may not be appreciated by the married boyfriend in question. What are some ways to make sure your love interest is truly unattached?

Cupid's Advice:

It's not fun to deal with others' emotional baggage. Though your partner may claim to be unattached to their ex, there's always a possibility they still could be. Cupid has some signs to look out for:

1. They've purged their social media: This may seem like a small detail, but it speaks volumes. One hand they're just pictures, but it could also indicate that they have some unresolved feelings about their ex. Photos are nostalgic – so your partner might just be nostalgic about their past love.

2. They talk about them nonstop: People want to talk about topics they're interested in, people they like, or things that are on their mind. If your partner brings up an ex a little more than what seems normal, it's likely that they are still emotionally attached. Don't overlook it or take it lightly

3. Your relationship feels forced: Your relationship should never feel forced or like a chore. You should always feel a natural connection and feel inclined to confide in your significant other. When you feel like your partner is forcing their feelings toward you, it is probably a sign to take a closer look at what's really going on.

There may have been a celebrity break-up in Hollywood, but we’re not quite sure. What are some reasons to avoid being wishy washy about your relationship?

Cupid’s Advice:

Not knowing what you want or where you want to be in your relationship can cause a lot of issues within yourself and your relationship. Here are a few more reasons to avoid being wishy washy in your relationship:

1. It can be confusing: If you are on the fence about your relationship, your partner could easily get confused. If there are at a certain level in the relationship that you’re not at yet, they may not understand what is going on. They may begin to wonder if you are as committed as they are or if you really want to be with them. It is best to make up your mind about them and communicate it clearly.

2. Feelings are at risk: If your partner feels that you both are on the same page when it comes to your romance but you are really several steps behind them, their entire world will apart when they figure it out. When you are wishy washy about your relationship, you are easily leading on your partner unless you make it clear that you are unsure. This way, they will not be blind sided by your feelings and they can adjust their expectations in the relationship.

3. You might settle: Sometimes, when we are unsure about something, we settle with what we have instead of making a hard choice. If this happens in a relationship, you will regret always. Instead of being comfortable with your indifference, make the decision. If you think that this relationship is the one you want, go for it. If you can't see yourself with your partner in the future, end it now.

Hopefully she can find a future partner to treat her better!

This celebrity break-up isn't necessarily surprising, but it's still sad. What are some ways to know your relationship is on its way out?

Cupid's Advice:

Sometime break-ups can be predictable depending on what has happened in your relationship. Here are some signs you and your partner could be ending your time together soon:

1. Long distance effects you both: Distance doesn't always make the heart grow fonder in relationships. For some couples, being apart for long periods of time can strain your relationship and allow for you and your partner to grow apart. If this seems to be a problem, you can expect to be breaking up soon.

Related Link: Celebrity Divorce: 'Vanderpump Rules' Star Sheana Shay Finalizes Divorce from Mike Shay

2. It's always on and off: Couples who keep making up and breaking up will eventually get tired of their old routine. Instead of getting back together or trying to stay together while being unhappy, it might be best to break it off permanently.

3. Wanting to see other people: Knowing that one of you is interested in seeing other people should be enough to cut ties in your relationship. If you sense that you or your partner plans on ending the relationship for a new relationship, then your intuition is most likely right.

Katie Maloney of 'Vanderpump Rules' Opens Up About Her Relationship and Love Life: "I'm Confident Now That a Proposal is Coming"

Interview by Lori Bizzoco. Written by Emma L. Wells.

After an emotional ride on season three of the popular Bravo reality TV series Vanderpump Rules, Katie Maloney seems better than ever! She took some time to talk with CupidsPulse.com about the biggest moments of last season, her relationship with Tom Schwartz and what's next for them as a celebrity couple.

Katie Maloney Discusses Her Relationship and Love Life and Reality TV Show

There were many points during last season where the fate of Maloney's relationship and love life with Schwartz was unclear. Viewers had watched the reality star give her boyfriend a six-month proposal ultimatum on the show. "When that came about, I was fed up and really frustrated," the reality TV star explains. After the complete story of his infidelity finally came out, Maloney admits that she was at the end of her rope: “I was like, ‘Okay, well, how many blows can I take and still be patient and understanding and work at this with you?’ There were all these bombs coming out of left field!”

In January, the beauty guru wrote about her celebrity romance in her Bravo blog: “I had to completely turn my attention and priorities towards our relationship and assess everything. Rebuilding my relationship was the most important thing to me. So in order to move forward, both in head and heart, I had to forgive everyone. Not for them but for me... For me, I cannot move forward and grow and learn if I do not swallow my pride and forgive and accept. I did this for myself and for my relationship. Tom on his own was making moves to preserve our relationship, and this was my contribution to our growth.”

And while her deadline has come and gone without an engagement ring, she seems optimistic about her future with Schwartz. “I’m confident now that a proposal is coming,” she shares. “We’re in the best place that we’ve been in. We went through hell, and we decided that our relationship is important to us both. We’re committed equally to it, and I think we’re more in love than we have been.”

Fans of Vanderpump Rules know that the famous couple have, of course, talked about their eventual engagement. Maloney says that she is a sucker for watching the crazy flash mob proposals on YouTube, but she has a different idea for her own special day. “I want him to do something that’s representative of us and that he wants to do,” she admits.

When it comes to their wedding day, she’d like it to be “completely stress-free. We get married, and then we party!” The pair hasn’t completely ruled out getting married on reality TV though. “We’ll see,” she cryptically responds when asked if her walk down the aisle will be seen on Vanderpump Rules.

She also reveals that they have talked about having a family. “I definitely want us to enjoy being married for a bit before we start having kids. And that’s why I want to get the ball moving – I’m young, but I’m not getting younger!” she says with a laugh.

It’s no surprise that Maloney feels that the issues she faced last year, both in her romantic relationship and in her friendships, have allowed her to grow as a person. She cites the difficulties with Schwartz as the turning point and shares, “Instead of letting it destroy me or devastate me, I’d rather use it to empower me. I want to focus on my strength and happiness and really begin to let go of the petty drama. I realize now that life is short.”

That new mindset is one of the reasons why she decided to bury the hatchet with Scheana Marie and go to Miami, even though it ended her friendship with Stassi Schroeder. “At the end of the day, if it’s going to be something that dumb that causes Stassi to toss out an amazing friend, then you know what? Sorry I’m not sorry,” she comments.

Vanderpump Rules* Star Katie Maloney Has Big Plans for the Future

It’s not just Maloney’s romantic life that’s coming together. “I’m at a point right now where I’m thinking, ‘What are you going to do next?’” she shares of her career path. Outside of working at Sur, she’s still focusing on her beauty blog Pucker & Pout, which offers makeup and fashion advice and might soon be broadening into health-conscious content like meditation, yoga, and exercise. “I’ve been brainstorming other ideas, little ventures I can do,” she adds. “It would be so much fun to do a line of cosmetics or hair care products, but it’s a huge undertaking.” While the blog is definitely her passion, she doesn’t know much about the business side of things. “I just like to put makeup on and be creative,” she confesses.

Her work on Pucker & Pout is something that viewers of the show don’t really get to see. “That stuff would be fun to have on Vanderpump Rules, but there’s not a lot of drama in it,” she explains. “Sometimes, I wish we could show more of the personal endeavors and things outside of the show. I think it’s important because we all are people who are creative, talented, and smart and work at a restaurant to supplement our income.”

Speaking of the hit reality TV show, fans of Vanderpump Rules are dying to know if there will be another season. The most recent season received such high ratings and viewership that many would be surprised if it Bravo didn’t renew it. When asked if she’d sign on for season four, she enthusiastically responds, “Of course!”

'Vanderpump Rules' Reality TV Star Katie Maloney Confirms That She and Tom Schwartz Are Still Together!

Interview by Lori Bizzoco. Written by Sarah Batcheller.

Katie Maloney is a force to be reckoned with on Bravo's hit reality series Vanderpump Rules, a spinoff of The Real Housewives of Beverly Hills. Maloney's romantic relationship with castmate Tom Schwartz is in the spotlight this season and has made her character very interesting to watch. Intense, drama-filled friendships sum up her social life, and her heated love life is now fodder for celebrity relationship news. CupidsPulse.com had the chance to speak with Maloney about the most recent celebrity cheating rumors on the show as well as her current relationship with Schwartz.

During our exclusive celebrity interview, the reality TV star confirmed that her employment at SUR was not staged for the cameras and that she's actually still working there. She also says that working with Lisa Vanderpump, the show's matriarch and boss, is "exactly what you would expect it to be." She assures us that Vanderpump "has high expectations – she really wants us to respect her and her business," adding, "She's really smart!"

Katie Maloney Discusses Celebrity Scandal on Reality TV Show

The Pucker & Pout style blogger clears the air about her fallout with castmate and ex-best friend Kristen Doute, who slept with their friend Stassi Schroeder's boyfriend, Jax Taylor. "Contrary to what everyone, including Kristen, wants to believe, I didn't end my friendship with her [Doute] because of what she did to Stassi." But Maloney does say it was a contributing factor because Doute's behavior and lies were "disturbing and alarming." Maloney explains, "It opened my eyes to how Kristen is towards her friends. We were best friends for so long, and we had a lot of fun together, but she has some issues that she has to work through. I don't hate her; I just had to move on with my life."

In regards to her friendship with Schroeder, the SUR employee says, "It's definitely not what it was." Without revealing what happened between them, Maloney says that Schroeder had ulterior motives when it came to helping her through the celebrity scandal and cheating rumors about her boyfriend of four years, Schwartz. Most of Schroeder's motives were fueled by Schroeder's beef with her ex-boyfriend Taylor. "It's a sensitive subject because there are a lot of things I don't understand about it," Maloney admits.

Maloney says she tries to stay out of the drama, but it's hard. "With the kind of people I run around with, it's impossible not to get caught up in things," she confesses. "I've always tried to keep a level head as much as I can and not let emotions run too high. That's always kind of been my M.O. – I think I've done a pretty good job!"

Celebrity Couple Katie Maloney and Tom Schwartz Still Together

If history repeats itself, then viewers predict that another celebrity cheating scandal will occur on season three of the popular show – and that it might be Maloney and her boyfriend who end things next. Thankfully, though, Maloney fondly describes their celebrity relationship, recalling, "We met when he moved here from Florida. Kristen moved in with him, and she kept wanting to introduce me to her roommate, and I was like, 'No, I don't really want to date a model dude. There are plenty of those.' But then finally I met him...and the rest is history!" During our exclusive celebrity interview, she confirms that, even though their relationship has been a bumpy ride, they are still together and going strong.

Maloney did go to her boss Vanderpump for relationship advice as we will see on tonight's episode. "I didn't know anyone else with an unbiased opinion who I could talk to about it," she shares. "Everyone was talking about Tom and me. I didn't know where to go. I didn't know how to be around Jax. Lisa could tell how much I was hurting and pressed for information, and I told her everything that happened. I value her opinion because she has more life experience. She's been married for 30 years, and she's not Jax's ex-girlfriend! It was really nice to go to her."

Since her blog offers beauty and fashion advice, we had to ask Maloney for her best tips on what to wear on a first date. She shares, "It obviously all depends on where you're going, but wear something comfortable. Wear your favorite outfit: your go-to shoes and your go-to dress." If you still can't find something that works, she adds, "A little black dress is always a good option. Just keep it as classic as possible!"

The Pucker & Pout creator believes that her and Schwartz's story "tugs on the heartstrings a little" because it's so relatable to those who have also had to work through tough issues with their partner. Maloney is very firm on the fact that she and her beau have a good relationship and she encourages women to be careful of the pressure you get from friends when it comes to making decisions about your love life!
