Will Arnett Files for Divorce from Amy Poehler 19 Months After Separation

By Sanetra Richards

Another one bites the dust! Will Arnett is ready to sign the papers (divorce ones, that is) and [legally] move on with his life. According UsMagazine.com, the 43-year-old The Millers actor has filed for divorce from his estranged wife, Amy Poehler, after 19 months of separation. The couple has two boys together, 5-year-old Archie and 3-year-old Abel, in which the Arrested Development star is asking for joint legal and physical custody, along with visitation rights.

How do you know when to give up on your marriage?

Cupid's Advice:

Marriage takes tons of work and effort that should be forth without hesitation. You and your partner are struggling to keep the marriage alive and are losing hope. Well, sometimes it is best to let it go because there is nothing there anymore that is worth fighting for. Cupid has some signs to recognize when knowing whether to give up on your marriage:

1. Increase in arguments: There is constant bickering between the two of you and by the end of it, nothing has been resolved. You cannot even start a simple conversation without tension and anger eventually coming about. Asking for favors is completely out of the question because you are expecting backlash or complaints. These are a few examples that your marriage has fallen to the rocks and you should possibly consider separation. A marriage is made up of many key components to keep it going: understanding, communication, and giving. Being at each other's throats on a daily basis is not healthy and will not improve without those components.

2. No love in the air: So long to the romantic dates, gestures, and getaways! You kissed that goodbye once bickering became a daily ritual in your marriage. You are no longer looking at your significant other the same, with the eyes that see nothing but love. Instead, resentment fills them and you would rather not look at your partner at all. These are clear signs to be wary of and you should consider separation for the best.

3. Eyes begin to wander: You begin to notice your partner not the only one who can catch or keep your attention anymore. Thoughts and envisions of being somewhere or with someone else start to form. Do not ignore this or think it is minor. If you or your partner wishes to engage in other affairs, divorce should be considered.

Will Arnett and Katherine Heigl Talk About Their Children and New Animated Film

By Maria Darbenzio

Will Arnett and Katherine Heigl walked the red carpet joyfully on January 11th at the Los Angeles premiere of their new animated comedy, The Nut Job. This family movie follows the story of an independent squirrel named Surly, who is banished from his park and forced to live a city life. Celebrity Baby Scoop had a chance to catch up with Arnett and Heigl to discuss the movie as well as their children. Arnett is the father of two sons, Archibald William Emerson and Abel James.

Heigel is the mother of two adopted daughters, Nancy Leigh and Adalaide Marie Hope.

Tell us about work life balance. Is there such a thing when you're a parent who works?

Will: "Anyone who's a parent knows that it is a balance and that you're always trying to find a way; I try to reverse engineer it, to look at what my family demands are and what my kids need and then kind of work backwards from there, and then retro fit everything into it. I feel very blessed when you get to work on something like this that doesn't take you away from the kids. Anything that takes me away from my kids, I dislike. "

Did having kids impact your decision to take this role and how you played your character?

Katherine: "I just really wanted to do something that I could show my kids, that we could watch together. We watch movies every night, so hopefully, we won't have to watch this one over and over again. "

Will: "Yeah, it did for me. I also watch a lot of these animated films, and I'm a huge fan of a lot of it. There's a lot of really good stuff out there, and it is important to me at this stage in my life to do stuff that I can share and enjoy with my kids and that they can watch. That's much more important, and now that's what I kind of want to do. "

Are there any animated films you remember as favorites from when you were growing up?

Katherine: "The Little Mermaid. I have a 5 year old and a 1- $\frac{1}{2}$ year old. The little one is more of a tomboy, but the bigger one is obsessed with princesses – to the point of exhaustion.

Will Arnett and Katie Lee are Dating and Shows PDA in Public

By April Littleton

Will Arnett and celebrity chef Katie Lee are dating! The new couple were spotted sharing a meal together at The Crow's Nest restaurant in Montauk, NY on Thursday, August 8. "They came in around 8 and his arm was around her waist," a source told UsMagazine.com. Arnett separated from Amy Poehler in September 2012 after nine years of marriage. They have two kids together, Archie, 4 and Abel, 2.

How do you go public with a new partner?

Cupid's Advice:

You've just started seeing someone and you think you're ready to go public with the romance. Dating someone new is always fun and exciting, but you don't want to introduce your significant other to the people you love unless you're absolutely sure he/she will be around for awhile. Cupid is here to help:

- 1. Talk to your partner first: You need to have "the talk" with your new love before you make any plans to go public. Ask your companion how they feel about making the relationship known to some of your friends and family. If he/she is unsure about their commitment to you or they're just not ready to meet your loved ones yet, give them a little more time.
- 2. Let your family know: If your significant other is OK with taking your relationship to the next level, give your family the heads up first. Tell you family and friends about your partner before you introduce them to one another.
- 3. Make sure you're ready: Really think about what you're about to get yourself into. Are you sure you're ready to let the family meet your honey? Hold off on any meeting plans if you feel even the slightest bit of hesitation. The person you're dating might not even be the right one to meet your loved ones.

Will Arnett Says Dating Seems 'Very Scary' Right Now

By Kerri Sheehan

Since his split from fellow actor comedienne, Amy Poehler, Will Arnett has taken a step back when it comes to dating. After nine years of marriage and two sons together, Arnett isn't looking to rush back into dating. "I'm 43 and I've found my happiness – which is my kids," Arnett said according to People. He added, "Yeah, I don't know what you do. Do you put out an announcement in the trades? I'M DATING! It all seems very scary to me, to be honest."

How do you get back in the dating game after being out of it for a long time?

Cupid's Advice:

The dating world is scary for everyone. It's a jungle full of random people and you never know who is in it just to play and who is in it to find love. Cupid has some advice:

1. Put yourself out there: You never know who you're going to meet and where you're going to meet them so always be open to new settings and environments. Maybe your soul mate was hiding somewhere at that party you did want to go to last week, but you'll never really know.

2. Don't be afraid to strike out: You can't let the fear of striking out keep you from winning the game. Just because you don't succeed once, twice, or a thousand times doesn't mean that your next home run isn't just around the corner. Dating has always been hot or miss, so just keep hoping for a hit.

3. Know yourself: You can't truly fall in love with someone else unless you know who you are first. Expecting someone to fall in love with you without first loving yourself is like expecting a halfhearted salesman to get any business.

Celeb Couples Take Emmys By

Storm

True Blood costars and real-life newlyweds Anna Paquin and Stephen Moyer were just one of the celebrity couples present at the 2010 Emmy Awards. Other couples who made stylish appearances on the red carpet were Claire Danes and Hugh Dancy, Amy Poehler and Will Arnett, Eva Longoria Parker and Tony Parker, Neil Patrick Harris and David Burtka, January Jones and Jason Sudeikis, as well as many others, according to YourTango. All making different fashion statements, the stars made sure their partners were up to snuff as well. Should you tell your partner how to dress?

Cupid's Advice:

Often times one person in a relationship has more fashion sense than the other. Cupid has some ideas to help you deal:

1. Let the minor things go: If you have something to say about what your partner is wearing each and every time he steps out of the house, it's bound to lead to some disagreements. Choose your fights carefully. Only speak up if your mate is truly wearing something you cannot tolerate in public.

2. Positive encouragement: Fashion is a way to express yourself. By controlling what your partner wears, you're taking away some of his personal expression. Try peppering your criticisms with positive encouragement. "Honey, I really like the graphic tee you have on, but would you mind wearing your black blazer with it?"

3. Compromise: It's a given that you won't always see eye-to-eye with your partner. If you don't agree with his fashion choice, politely ask him if he will change. Don't go choose a new outfit for him. By putting the ball in his court, he feels like he still has some sense of style control.

Amy Poehler & Will Arnett Welcome Another Son

Amy Poehler and Will Arnett welcomed their second son, Abel James Arnett, weighing 7 lbs., 13 oz. on Friday morning, adding to their growing family. Their first son, Archie, will be turning two this October. Their rep told People, “Amy, Will, Abel and Archie are all healthy and resting comfortably.”

How do you prepare your older children for a new baby in the family?

Cupid’s Advice:

There are several ways to make your current child(ren) comfortable around new arrivals, starting while you’re still pregnant, or thinking of becoming pregnant. Read what Cupid has to say:

1. Talk to your kids: Early in the pregnancy, or if possible, before you become pregnant, sit down with your family and explain the coming changes. Be prepared for questions by checking out sites like Kid’s Health.

2. Classes: Many hospitals and birthing centers offer free or low cost big brother/sister classes. They'll help your little ones learn how to interact with the new baby. Your children can even learn how to change a diaper!

3. Spend time with older kids: If you don't have much time to give, focus on the quality of that time. Make sure they know that you still love them.
