Our exclusive interview with Executive Editor of Cupid's Pulse & a mom
with an amazing Family,
Lori Bizzoco

We have a wonderful interview for you with an amazing person just in time for Mother's Day. Lori Bizzoco has such a fantastic story to tell – she is the Executive Editor of Cupid's Pulse.com, the leading personal relationship site which takes celebrity news and makes it applicable to singles and couples and their love lives. Moreover, she is happily married, a Mom of two adorable daughters, and has time to pay attention to the family St. Bernard. And she has an equally amazing love story to share with you about her relationship with her husband – how they met, and then how they found each other again and knew it was the real thing. She embodies "Date Therapy", and my protocol, though I must admit, she got there on her own as she is a well received relationship expert who has just been asked to write her memoir. I am so pleased to be a friend and colleague of Lori's, and write as an Expert for her site, www.cupidspulse.com/experts/lydia-belton. Lori took time out from writing her book and all her other activities to appear on my dating show for blog radio show, "Date Therapy". This woman is truly special, and her enthusiasm for life and love will lift your spirits. Please join us at www.blogtalkradio.com/datetherapy-on-coachingmatchmaking/2012/03/29/date-therapy-on-matchmakingcoachingdating-therapy.
