Cupid’s Advice:

Celebrity news or otherwise, it’s a difficult time for everyone when it comes to dealing with tragedy. Cupid has three tips for supporting your partner through tragic events:

1. Offer a listening ear and shoulder to cry on: When something awful strikes, people feel their emotions intensely and have a lot running through their minds. Offer a listening ear so they can let their emotions out. Just remember to set boundaries.

2. Therapy may be needed, so be encouraging: Depending on the tragedy, therapy may be needed. After you’ve set your boundaries, suggest they talk to a professional about the tragic event that occurred. For many, therapy can be scary and is taboo to speak about, so be encouraging and supportive of the decision. Keep an eye on your partner and know that the National Suicide Prevention Lifeline at 1-800-273-TALK (8255) is available.

3. Let your partner deal with what happened at their own pace: Everybody heals at their own pace. Some may heal faster while others need more time. That is OK. Don't try to rush the healing for your partner. Respect their healing process and give them space if they need it. Or again, the ear and shoulder they need.
