Former celebrity couple Mariah Carey and Nick Cannon are keeping their relationship civil for their children. People.com reported that celebrity exes Carey and Cannon spent Halloween together with their twins Monroe and Moroccan. Cannon posted pictures from the night, one of the two trick-or-treating. Carey and Cannon filed for their celebrity divorce in 2014, but the two have remained friendly and have spent a few holidays together with their children.

This former celebrity couple knows it's important to celebrate holidays with their kids. What are some ways to remain civil for the sake of your children?

Cupid's Advice:

Spending time with family is very important, even if you and your significant other are divorced and are not on the best terms. You should still find it in your hearts to be friendly for the sake of your children. Cupid has some advice on how to remain civil:

1. Family nights: Take time out of each month to spend nights together with your children. Go to the movies, have a game night. It will help build good relationships with your kids. They are probably having a rough time now that you aren't together, so this will be good for them.

2. Keep in touch: Stay in touch with one another and what is going on in your children's lives. You should both know what is happening so you aren't surprised when your kids come to you.

3. Be friends: Make sure you both are on board when disciplining and taking care of your children. Just because you aren't together anymore, doesn't mean you can't raise your kids together. Being friends will benefit you and give your children an easier life when it comes to divorce.
