What constitutes a ‘proper home’ for you and your partner?

Cupid’s Advice:

The term “proper,” although ambiguous in nature, can be resolved for both Buble and your future family. Cupid has some suggestions for you to keep in mind when its time to build your nest:

1. Keep it clean: A spotless home might be in order if you want to keep things proper for you and your family. An hour or two a week is all it takes to make your home dirt-free. Plus, your friends and family will enjoy visiting a lot more!

2. Keep things family-oriented: Be mindful of what is said between you and your partner, especially if kids are present. There’s a Jamaican saying that goes, “monkey see monkey do.” In order to keep your home “proper,” adult issues should stay in a private room.

3. Keep the little things in mind: Remember that when you live with someone, the little things you do such as saying “I love you” and “thank you” are important. Plus, they keep a healthy and happy atmosphere in your now “proper” home.
