Some potential celebrity pregnancies aren't exactly welcomed with open arms. What are some ways to deal with a surprise pregnancy?

Cupid's Advice:

This is definitely one celebrity pregnancy that would have been a bit weird (and even controversial). Here are some ways to deal with a surprise pregnancy:

1. Allow yourself to be upset: If you truly aren't thrilled about having a baby, allow yourself time to be upset as you process the information. Pushing away emotions usually means they'll bottle up and explode on you at a later date (which could mean a meltdown).

2. Don't give up: If at this point in your life you weren't planning on having a baby because you had other plans taking priority, don't give up on them! Talk to your partner about the situation and your dreams. Make a plan together on how to achieve those dreams. Being pregnant doesn't mean you have to give everything up.

3. Look at your pregnancy as room for growth: This is a time where you, your partner, and you two as a couple are going to grow and change together. This is a new chapter of your lives and it may be fun and exiting. Who knows how you two will feel nine months from now! Just wait and see as you take on this journey together.
