Cupid's Advice:

It's easy to get wrapped up in your baby's life so much that you forget about your relationship. Cupid has some tips:

1. Schedule a date night: If you're so busy that it's not realistic to naturally come up with some quality time with your partner, then schedule it ... at least for now. That way you'll have time for just the two of you to reconnect and keep the spark alive.

2. Plan family cuddle sessions: It may sound cheesy, but getting close with your new baby with your partner is a good time to bond as a family. It can be easy to take turns with the baby, and sometimes that makes the most sense, but you're building your relationship as a family, not just as father/child and mother/child.

3. Enlist the help of family and friends: The fact is, your family and friends are probably itching to help you with your cute little son or daughter anyway. Take them up on their offers to babysit, and get some time for yourselves. Even if we're just talking about 1-2 hours here and there, any time is valuable.
