This celebrity news is surprising! What do you do if your partner doesn't like your new look?

Cupid's Advice:

Everyone wants to look good for their partner, even if that means changing their look. Cupid has dating advice to make the situation better:

- 1. Opinions matter: The best way to handle if your partner doesn't like your look is to get advice. A little constructive criticism doesn't hurt, especially if it's helpful. If he says your cherry red hair may be a little harsh on the eyes, choose a more subtle, burgundy color. There are many alternatives for different things.

2. All about wardrobe: If your partner doesn't like your new look, it may be time to rearrange your style. If your partner thinks your new look is too "dark and edgy", it wouldn't hurt to brighten things up! Try choosing accessories and clothing that will bring out your features.

3. Don't take it to the extreme: The best way to avoid a surprising reaction (in a bad way) from your partner is to not overdo it. The last thing you want to do is completely change your look. Your partner should be able to compliment you, and definitely recognize you.
