Cupid’s Advice:

Planning a wedding can be a hassle, especially for first-timers. Cupid has tips on how you can make it as smooth as possible:

1. Organize the guest list: The toughest part about planning a wedding is the dreaded guest list. Your fiancé may not be too fond of your uncle, and some of your friends may not want to sit next to him. Be respectful at all times. Make sure the people you both invite are important; there’s no need to invite a bunch of unnecessary people you barely speak to.

2. Traditional or unique: Many people dream of how their wedding will turn out, which leads to confusion in how the big day is supposed to turn out. You may want to keep the traditional roots in your marriage, such as jumping the broom or having your father walk you down the aisle. Your fiancé might like to try new things, especially if he gets bored with the old-fashioned ways. No need to get worked up over these details. You can have your traditional wedding while throwing in a bit of uniqueness.

3. The invitation: The invitation is very important, because how else will your close friends and loved ones know about your big day? The appearance of your invitation may not matter to him, which means he probably wants it to be simple and straightforward. You can compromise on the invitation by choosing a nice design that you both agree on.
