Cupid's Advice:

Age is just a number, like the saying goes. Sometimes older adults can be immature and in other cases younger adults can be mature for their age. The way your partner behaves and their actions, is what ultimately determines if your partner is mature for their age. Cupid has some tips on determining if your partner is mature for their age:

1. Behavior: The way a person behaves declares their level of maturity. If they are loyal, honest and follow through with their promises, then they are mature. If they are flakey, unorganized and don't take things seriously, then they may be on the immature side still. However; everyone grows as a person. Just because your partner may be immature for their age doesn't mean they can't improve!

2. Actions: Actions speak louder than words. Your partner can tell you whatever they want, but it's important to base their maturity on their actions. If they follow through with promises, call when they say they will, are consistent and so forth. Pay attention to these details!

3. On the same page: The most important way to tell if your partner is mature for their age is to determine if you are on the same page in terms of your relationship. If you want something more serious, then it's vital that they do, too. If you are both just having fun and taking things slow, then that's another option. Just make sure that the maturity of the relationship is the same level of maturity of each partner.
