By Myesha Cobb

Here is some interesting celebrity couple news! The Bachelorette star Shawn Booth, hung out with fiancée Kaitlyn Bristowe's exes this past weekend. This pair's celebrity relationship must be great, because what partner would be fine with their significant other hanging out with their exes? Obviously, the run-in was not intentional, yet it included no drama whatsoever. In fact, Booth posted a photo with the three exes on his Instagram stating, "You wouldn't smile either if you were at the bar with 3 of your fiancé's exes," which was obviously a joke. EOnline.com stated that they all went out for a night on the town. Kaitlyn brought along fellow girlfriends Andi Dorfman, Ashley Laconetti and Jade Roper.

This celebrity news requires Shawn Booth to put jealousy to the side. What are some ways to combat jealousy in a relationship?

Cupid's Advice:

This celebrity relationship clearly has no jealousy woes at all. But, how hard is it not to be jealous when it comes to your significant other? Here is some relationship advice on how to combat jealousy in a relationship:

1. Stay focused on your relationship: Do not let any outside interference get in the way of your relationship and how you feel about your significant other. Remember that you and your partner are the only ones in your relationship and that should be your main focus.

2. Let your partner live their life: Sometimes being jealous means always questioning your partner, their whereabouts and who they are with 24/7. That's not okay. Let your partner live their own life. Being in a relationship means making sacrifices, and one of those sacrifices is remembering that your partner has their own life. Let them live it.

3. Talk to them, don't investigate them: If you feel like you are becoming jealous about something in your relationship, talk to your partner about it, but don't treat them like they are in questioning at a police station downtown. Remember, your partner is your equal, not your child.
