

Dating Advice: 5 Tips For Bunny Hopping Yourself Into Romance

By Jenna Barbieri

Although Easter is a religious holiday, you don't necessarily have to be religious to enjoy the festivities. Like any holiday, Easter is a cheerful day full of celebration, with opportunities to meet that special someone.

If you're celebrating the holiday with family or friends, here are a few pieces of dating advice that will have you bunny hopping yourself into a new romance:

1. Egg hunt: A popular Easter tradition is hiding plastic eggs full of candy around a designated area and having people search for them. Most people agree that the hunt itself is even more enjoyable than the prize! Turn it into a “love hunt” by taking this activity somewhere public, like a park. That way you can ask the cutie on the bench to help you look – or sit back and wait for him to find an egg and bring it to you first. It’s a double prize!

3. Wear bright colors: Easter is famous for its luminous colors, but not everyone is brave enough to keep to the tradition of wearing them. Put on your brightest shirt and go out for a cup of coffee. You’re guaranteed to catch someone’s eye!

4. Join NYC’s Easter parade: Since the Civil War days, thousands of New Yorkers dress up each year in their craziest bonnets and parade down Fifth Avenue from 44th to 57th Street in New York City. It’s a fun and wacky way piece of dating advice to meet a possible future beau. Think of the stories you'll tell the kids!

5. Make a move: Put a note in a plastic egg, and roll it to the feet of someone who has caught your eye. It's a cute and outgoing proposal that he won't be able to resist!

Everyone wants the Easter bunny to leave us a special someone next to our candy baskets, but unfortunately, it doesn't work that way. However, the holiday itself is a great excuse to get out there and find someone. With these tips, it should be as easy as finding a bright pink egg in a tree! Cupid wishes you the best of luck on your hunt!
