Cupid’s Advice:

Getting engaged is an exciting and special moment. Some are quick to announce they’ll be tying the knot to the world, while others like to play coy and keep the juicy details to themselves. If mystery is your thing, Cupid is here to help you hold off announcing your engagement:

1. Don’t post it: The best way to keep a low profile on your engagement is to stay away from social media. Keeping secrets can be hard, so if you’re tempted to reveal your engagement write it down in a journal to shake that urge to post.

2. Decide when: If you want your engagement announcement to stand out, you need to figure out exactly when and how you want to reveal the news. Think about how you can best surprise people. Since using social media is common practice now, maybe you can go old school and send the announcement on paper!

3. Tease and deny: The most fun part about mystery is anticipation. People can't wait to figure it out; just ask any mystery novelist. A fun way to reveal your engagement is to drop little hints and act like you don't know what people are talking about when they ask if you're engaged. The people who guessed that you're engaged will be satisfied when they find out they were right.
