When in a relationship, it's natural to put up with the goofy aspects of your partner. You're used to these tiny imperfections and at times smile about, but that doesn't mean you don't notice them. In our latest celebrity news, we see celebrity couple Duchess Kate Middleton and Prince William experience this when the Duchess refuses to eat the Prince's cooking. According to UsMagazine.com, the royal celebrity couple whipped up some Indian cuisine while attending an entrepreneurial engagement in Mumbai on Monday, April 11th. Here, the Duchess politely refused to try her husband's cooking, but in the sweetest way possible.

This celebrity couple is very aware of each other's flaws. How do you tolerate your partner's imperfections?

Cupid's Advice:

Seeing your partner's flaws does not make you any less attracted to them, but it can get difficult to tolerate these imperfections after a while. Cupid has some relationship advice to help you look past those pesky faults:

1. Don't define your partner by them: The tiny details that bother you about a person are just that: tiny. They do not define your partner and are not the main parts of their personality. Don't let these flaws take over everything you love about them.

2. Remember you're not perfect: While these pet peeves about your partner may bother you to your core, don't forget there are aspects of yourself that bother them as well. Forgiving each other for these imperfections is a part of love and acceptance, and that mutual respect is what keeps your relationship strong.
