There's another celebrity baby in the mix! What are some ways to prepare for your baby number two?

Cupid's Advice:

Having a first baby has its own set of challenges, and throwing a second baby into the mix can be nerve-wracking. Cupid is here to help you prepare your household for a second child:

1. Prepare the sibling: Depending on how old your first child is will determine how this step goes, but if your child is old enough to understand, you need to prepare them to be a sibling. Your child will transition better if they know their role as an older brother or sister ahead of time. It's also important that your child understands that you love them just as much as the new baby that enters your life.

2. Collaboration is best: Your spouse should also be preparing for baby number two. Make sure you have an open line of communication with your spouse because caring for two children is going to require teamwork. As parents you won't only have to worry about your own schedules. but also your children's. Splitting tasks between each other will also keep you track.

3. Keep researching: There is always something new that can be learned. Don't let your experience with the first child make you think you know everything. Review the baby books or websites you read before and try to look for new sources of information as well. You never know what you will encounter with your latest addition to the family.
