Cupid's Advice:

Though most of us won't be riding a private jet for a birthday trip anytime soon, there are still many ways to keep things exciting. Date night doesn't have to be dinner and a movie. Cupid is here to help you think outside the box for your next date night:

1. Something you'd never do: If you're like most couples, there is probably something your partner loves to do that you really don't care for. Whether it's horseback riding, sports, or shopping, plan a day of that activity. Your partner will be impressed that you went out of your way and out of your comfort zone, to do something they really love.

2. Adventures close to home: Wherever you live, especially if it's in the U.S., there is a good chance that there is a park near to where you live that you've never visited. State parks in the U.S. range from beach to mountain depending on where you live, and they normally don't cost more than ten dollars. Find a place close to home that you've never been to and make a date. And, if the outdoors isn't your thing, search for an indoor rock climbing facility or even take a dance class. The definition of adventure will vary by couple.
