In the latest celebrity news, Chad Johnson, a former contestant on the current season of The Bachelorette, continues to cause drama. Though star JoJo Fletcher has already eliminated Johnson from the competition for his bully-like behavior toward the other guys, he's not done yet. UsMagazine.com reported that in a celebrity interview with Andy Cohen on Monday, June 27, Johnson claimed that guys on the show are “acting all nice and like they’re such good guys when at the end of the day, they’re cheating on their girlfriends, half of them broke up with girlfriends to go on the show.” On June 20th, Johnson posted a picture of himself kissing contestant Robby Hayes’ ex-girlfriend. Johnson chalks his behavior up to the fact that the show is a competition, saying, “It’s a competition ... I’m going to do what I have to do. I treat my women very well. That’s my thing, like yeah, I’m willing to do what I gotta do to get what I want when it comes to competition, but I’m very nice to my girls.”

In celebrity news, The Bachelorette drama continues! What are some ways to tell that your crush is still attached to a former fling?

Cupid’s Advice

It’s clear that Chad isn’t letting go. While causing drama on a reality television show is not something people do on the regular, falling for someone who is still attached to a former fling is a pretty common occurrence. Here’s how to tell if your crush’s heart isn’t up for grabs:

1. Wearing your heart on your sleeve: If your crush is still wearing the clothes his or her ex left behind, the attachment is probably still there. If the person you’re crushing on has made no attempt to remove or get rid of reminders of an ex, take it as a warning sign.

2. Topic of conversation: If all your crush can talk about is an ex, watch out. Whether your crush is praising or bashing the past relationship, the fact that it is being frequently brought up means it's still on his or her mind.
