Nashville is back! Fans and cast members alike couldn't be happier, especially Chris Carmack. Not only did he get the opportunity to channel his music, but he also found love. In celebrity news, Carmack met his fiancée on the set of Nashville. Erin Slaver played violin for Sam Palladio, who plays Gunnar on the show, as well as acted as a backup singer for Hayden Panettiere's character, Juliette Barnes. The celebrity couple got engaged on a rooftop in New York. Carmack said, "I hired a little gypsy jazz quartet to play some of our favorite songs." Carmack has always loved music and according to People.com, he recently released his EP Pieces of You. Carmack wrote all of the songs himself and can't thank Nashville enough. He said, "This job is far and away the most special job that I've had in my career." Followed by, "I've made very close friends, we've had incredible adventures and journeys and we've gone on tours across the United States with the music." Sounds like a hit!

In celebrity news, this musical duo has found love! Besides proposing on a rooftop, what are some other romantic gestures that you can plan for your partner?

Cupid's Advice:

Who doesn't love a good romantic gesture? Whether it's a proposal or a first date, it's always nice to feel appreciated. Cupid is here with some dating advice:

1. Candlelight dates: Anything with mood lighting is romantic. Candles provide a good source of light and heat for a young couple. Dim the lights and have a romantic dinner or movie night inside.

2. Beneath the stars: Try a date night with some natural light by setting up a picnic under the stars. It doesn't get much more romantic than a beach or park at night. Share a blanket and wish on a shooting star that he's 'the one'.
