In latest celebrity news, it looks like Khloe Kardashian is moving on from her past relationship drama and celebrity divorce from Lamar Odom. The reality star was recently spotted getting hot and heavy with Trey Songz at Topgolf in Las Vegas on Sunday, according to UsMagazine.com. According to a source, the duo were “all over each other. It was really obvious they were together.” The source continued, saying, “They were with a group of friends right in the heart of the fourth floor for all to see.”

This celebrity news has us realizing that Khloe Kardashian isn't looking to hide her new love interest. What are some benefits to keeping your relationship out in the open?

Cupid's Advice:

You have two choices when you're going into a new relationship. You can either embrace it and bring it public right away, or you can keep your privacy and stay in hiding. Cupid has some relationship advice as to why keeping things open might be the way to go:

1. Less work: The fact is, keeping everything on the down low can be exhausting after a while. You're always worried someone is going to find something out or disturb your privacy. You must go above and beyond to keep PDA to a minimum and refrain from talking to your close friends about your relationship.

2. Your friends and family don't have to guess: When you stay in hiding and keep relationship details to yourself, your friends and family might let their imaginations run wild and fill in the gaps with their imagination. If they always know where things stand and see that you have nothing to hide, that simply won't happen.

3. You can have more fun: If your relationship is in the open, your social circle will know they can invite you to fun things. If you're keeping everything hidden, you'll have less opportunity to hang out with friends and lead a social lifestyle.
