Cupid's Advice:

The on-again off-again couple doesn't always have the best rep. Being the pair that tries over and over to make it work isn't always a bad thing. Cupid is here to help:

1. Your feelings: Be sure that you've sorted out your feelings before you make any big decisions. If the feelings aren't there anymore, don't waste your time. Feel it out and see if it's right and then decide.

2. Connection: See if the connection is still present between the two of you. If the spark is gone in your relationship, don't bother trying to reignite it. After a while, it'll just turn into a cycle of break ups and makes ups that will ultimately end in a break up.

3. Future: Only get back together if you see a future for the two of you. Getting back together is a big decision and if it's not going to work out for the long haul, don't try again. Instead try starting fresh with somebody new.
