Ciara and Seattle Seahawks QB Russell Wilson said “I do” at their celebrity wedding in England last week. According to EOnline.com, Ciara wore a custom Roberto Cavalli Couture by Peter Dundas and there were over 100 guests in attendance. In front of many friends and family members, this celebrity couple took their celebrity relationship to the next level, and Wilson said the best part was “just to see her face and the long train she had. And then Earth, Wind and Fire took the night away.”

This celebrity wedding story has us swooning. What are three reasons to have a large wedding celebration?

Cupid's Advice:

Take a page out of the Wilson's book and plan a large wedding celebration. All of their friends and family were in attendance, and yours should be, too. There's no reason to skimp on your big day, so here are three reasons to have a large wedding celebration:

1. Lower stress: Having a large wedding celebration may sound more stressful, but it just might be less stressful. There is nothing worse than sitting down to make a guest list, deciding it's too long, and having to cross people off. Chances are if you put the person on the list, you don't want to cross them off. Planning a large wedding will save you the terrible feeling of crossing a friend off your list, and will also save you and your betrothed many arguments over the number of guests.

2. All the pieces of the puzzle: Whether a large wedding celebration refers to the actual number of people in attendance or just the general grandeur of the event, go big. Plan a budget that is within your means, but also allows you to have everything you want on your big day. Planning a large wedding celebration will ensure that every aspect will be the way you pictured it. You shouldn't skimp on your guest list, dress, food, or decor if you don't have to.

3. Party time: If there is no other reason, plan a large wedding celebration because at the end of the day, it's a party! Let loose and celebrate this new chapter in your life with all the people who are important to you. You can't have an awesome party with only 50 people, so just go for it!
