Should you get married just because you want children?

Cupid’s Advice:

Nowadays people have marriages without children and have children without marriage, yet they are still perfectly happy. Cupid has a few things to consider:

1. Think about the children first: It’s not a question of whether or not you are married, but about into what kind of an environment you are bringing children.

2. Do what makes you happy: If you really want children, don't feel that you have to wait until you get married or promoted. Do what you feel will make you happiest at the time.

3. Don't crack under pressure: There's always pressure from your family and friends to have children once you hit a certain age. Peer pressure is never a good reason to reproduce.
