By Stephanie Sacco

Roommates Avril Lavigne and Ryan Cabrera have been living together since 2015, but only now have been on the radar for celebrity gossip. According to UsMagazine.com, Cabrera met up with Lavigne while touring for the My2K Tour at New York City's STK Midtown for a romantic dinner. This new celebrity couple is a 90's dream. In celebrity news, their relationship has been under wraps, but a source says they're 'fully in a relationship'. Lavigne's been unlucky in love with two ex-husbands who also just so happen to be singers; maybe three times will be the charm.

This new celebrity couple has us rooting for a long-term relationship. How do you know if your roommate is moving out of the friend-zone?

Cupid's Advice:

Getting stuck in the friend-zone can be the worst place to be. Not only do you have to live with the fact that they're not interested, but you have to watch them date other people. Cupid is here to help:

1. Feelings shift: If you start thinking about your friend in a different way or thinking about them more often, you got it bad. The idea of your friend now seen in a new light can change everything. Can boys and girls be just friends?

2. Jealousy: When they hang out with other people or more specifically a different girl and you feel badly about it, there's more to the story. Your feelings towards them could borderline on a crush. The friend-zone might be cracking down and you might just find yourself drawn to a friend.

3. They make a move: If your friend has started to change because the idea of you has got their heart on fire, you can tell that the tides are changing. Pay attention to the way he acts or reacts to you. When you both start gravitating towards each other, don't fight it.
