

Kelly Ripa

Kelly Ripa was the daytime host of Live with Regis and Kelly! and then later Live with Kelly & Michael. Now she hosts Live with Kelly! as the show looks for a replacement for Michael Strahan. While Ripa was also on Hope & Faith, Dancin' on Air, and Dance Party USA, one of her most prominent roles was from her 12 years on All My Children, where she portrayed a troubled party girl.

Not only is Ripa's TV career astounding, but her love life has also done pretty well. In 1995, she met Mark Consuelos as a new cast member on All My Children. A year later and they were happily married. The celebrity couple has three children: Michael, Lola, and Joaquin. The famous duo has been married for over 20 years and have even had to be long distance often. Their relationship is a rare success story in Hollywood, which is full of scandals, cheating, and horrible celebrity divorces. Her husband believes that with their children growing older, things are a lot easier for them. Ripa believes that a good date night, or just alone time between two partners can lead to great success for a long-term couple.
