Cupid's Advice:

Exes can be permanent or they can be on and off. Sometimes you get back together and it works out for the best. Cupid is here to help:

1. Growth: Only consider getting back together with an ex if there's growth in the relationship. If you both have grown up and found that you were immature or too young and think it's a good time now to try again, by all means. Four years is a long time to have grown and to be a new person.

2. Change: If there were specific problems that kept you two apart and your ex is willing to change his behavior to get back together, then it's worth the consideration. Don't immediately let him back into your life, but ease your way into it. You don't have to get back together right away.

3. Future: Don't fall backwards unless you think there's going to be a different outcome. It's not fair to either of you to try again if it's not going somewhere. Be absolutely sure it's what you want before diving in again.
