Cupid's Advice:

Some people would rather have the gender of the baby be a surprise. But when you do want to find out, Cupid is here to help you prepare:

1. Dress the part: When you find out the gender of your baby, it usually makes it easier to pick out clothes. Instead of trying to figure out neutral gender outfits, you can pick out the frilly dresses and skirts if that's what you want. You can also buy bows or anything else that will make your baby girl stand out.

2. Paint the walls: Just because you're having a girl, it doesn't mean everything needs to be pink. However, knowing that your baby is a girl gives you more of an opportunity to decorate it the way you want to. For example, you can paint the walls with flowers, a castle, or just something positive, bright and girly. You have options!
