Dating Advice On Finding True Love

1. Putting the past in the future. Using criteria from your past in your future is a sure way to sabotage new relationships. There's usually pain in the past and bringing those thoughts with you can make you fearful or cause pain. Use your love desires instead, in other words, traits you'd like to find in a partner.

2. Try to be happy. Just like in the movies, the main character always falls in love when they're happy and having a good day. If you're open to being happy more often, you'll open yourself to men and invite them in with your positive energy.

3. Learn to be confident. Nobody likes a person who looks insecure or desperate. Don't give your power away by seeking validation from men. When you're confident, men will simply be attracted to that and will want to be around you.
