Cupid's Advice:

Sometimes your partner may want to keep some personal things in his or her life separate. A little confused as to why? Cupid is here to help:

1. They act different around their friends: When you put your significant other with their friends, sometimes a different personality comes out. Your partner may not want you to see the other side they have; maybe they're afraid they act too differently.

2. Friends may bring up the past: Your partner's friends know a lot about about him/her. What if there's an embarrassing story your partner is hiding? What about embarrassing photos from nights out on the town? His/her friends have the power to blackmail. Your partner may be hiding you from their embarrassing past.

3. Your partner wants you for his/herself: Partners can be protective, meaning they care about you so much that they don't want you to be around any of their friends. Maybe they're not mature enough for you to hang out with them. They're trying to keep you away from their craziness.
