Cupid's Advice:

Working out can be hard! You say you want to work out, but then you probably just end up on the couch watching TV. Maybe it's time to grab your partner and find a way to bond over exercise. Cupid is here to help:

1. You push yourselves: Odds are that if you're dating, you want to be the best person you can for your significant other. You won't be afraid to push each other and help them move in the right direction, especially if you are there alongside them, supporting them.

2. You have a workout buddy: A lot of people don't like working out alone. They need someone to guide them and do the same workouts as them so you both feel the burn. Working out with your partner means you always have someone to work out with, so you're never alone. A romantic partner and a workout one? Double win!

3. You gain trust: If you are working out with a partner, you are going to have to spot them if they lift weights, or make sure they drink plenty of water and don't hurt themselves. This trust while working out will gain trust in your relationship, and hopefully strengthen it.
