

Celebrity News: Aubrey Plaza Almost Married Michael Cera in Las Vegas

By Kayla Garritano

This duo is keeping it on the down low. Aubrey Plaza revealed in a recent interview that she once dated former co-star Michael Cera, and even thought about tying the knot with him! According to UsMagazine.com, this celebrity news came from an interview on RuPaul and Michelle Visage's podcast, What's the Tee?, after RuPaul mentioned that he found Cera, 28, "sexy." The celebrity exes dated for a year and a half and drove across the country after filming their movie, Scott Pilgrim vs. the World, only to almost get married in Vegas. "We love each other. We're still really good friends," Plaza said.

This celebrity news has us shocked! What are some benefits to a spur of the moment wedding?

Cupid's Advice:

Love can be spontaneous and full of adventure! If you're a couple who likes to take a drive on the more spontaneous side, Cupid is here to tell you why you should have a spur of the moment wedding:

1. No planning: Planning a wedding has the capability to be stressful and may take a turn for the worst between you and your partner. So, why not skip all the hassle of planning and just go for it? All the planning you'll have to do is picking the Vegas chapel and deciding on which Elvis you want to have marry you!

2. No invites: Another stressful event when having a wedding is figuring out who you're going to invite. There tends to be a lot of family problems; who doesn't get along, who can't sit next to whom, and who doesn't get invited versus who does. You can take out that stress by just going for it and getting married. There's no one involved except the two lovebirds.

3. It's fun: Spontaneous actions can bring out the best moments. If you and your partner are about doing things just because "you feel like it," it may make your relationship strong. If you both stop worrying about the "what ifs," then you're going to enjoy every moment you have together. Make your marriage a part of the fun!
