Cupid's Advice:

The holidays are a romantic and fun time of the year, one you want to spend with your partner! If you two are really ready to join your holiday celebrations and decide on snuggling up for the holidays, here are some ways to start holiday traditions together:

1. Borrow from your families: It's possible your families had different traditions when you would celebrate with them. But now, since you're bringing your lives together, you could incorporate a little bit of tradition from each side of the family. This is a way to make it your own, while keeping some of the old ways.

2. Talk about what you want: When you didn't celebrate with your partner, what did you like doing on Christmas Eve or Christmas Day? Maybe you like baking cookies or being active, and your partner likes just relaxing on the couch. Compromise on your interests to create something enjoyable for the both of you.

3. Try something new: Traditions have to start somewhere. Maybe there's something you've always wanted to try, and the best time to try it would be with your partner. You may end up both really liking it and sticking to it every year. Or maybe you don't like it, and you move on and try something else. Start your own tradition and hope it becomes something even bigger and better.
