Cupid's Advice:

When you're with that special someone, you're going to know you want to marry them. But how do you know when your partner is ready to tie the knot? Cupid is here with some relationship advice:

1. Look for the hints: Your partner may drop a couple "when we get married" or "for our wedding" into conversations when they get reminded of something wedding related. They may keep the hints subtle without directly confronting you, but that's just their way of saying they see a future with you.

2. Talk to them: If you're not getting any hints, try the direct approach. You can ask them if they've thought about marriage, or talk to them about where they see themselves in the next 10 years. If you're not getting a clear answer, it's best to talk to them directly.

3. Look where they stand: Are they financially independent, are they emotionally stable, and do they like children? Make sure that your partner is in a good and happy place. If they are, then that is a sign they are ready for a future with you, and that means hopefully starting a family.
