1. Make sure that your heart is ready to commit;
2. Make sure that your partner is ready to commit; and
3. Recognize that you are committing to your partner no matter what.
4. Make the proposal romantic and fun;

5. After popping the question, celebrate!

Bushnell also came into the discussion by talking about the worries of finding the perfect ring. ““If it’s coming from you and you put a lot of time and effort into picking it out, I have no doubt that they’re probably going to love it,” she says, right before flashing her own ring with a smile.

Even when it comes to celebrity weddings, it’s important to make your marriage proposal memorable. What are some key ways to make your proposal as special as can be?

Cupid’s Advice:

Wedding proposal memories should last a lifetime. You will be able to tell all your friends and family, and even someday you’re own kids, how your love story started. Cupid is here with some relationship advice to make sure your proposal is one not to forget:

1. Get your friends & family involved: Your friends and family are always there to help. You can get them in on the plan by asking for their help, have them take photos of the big reveal, or just stand back-up in case anything goes wrong. They won’t turn down the offer to see a romantic and amazing moment for someone they care about.

3. Surprise: The most magical moments are when you least expect it. You and your partner have probably talked about marriage, but your partner may not know when you're going to pop the question. Do it at the most unexpected time so your significant other won't see it coming. There will be a surprised face and happy tears.
