How charming! Meghan Markle was spotted wearing a necklace with the letters M and H on it. According to UsMagazine.com, the celebrity couple has yet to step out together, but it doesn't mean their love is a secret. Markle was spotted shopping in Toronto on Saturday, December 3, wearing her Maya Brenner Asymmetrical Letter & Charm Necklace. This shinning piece of jewelry is available in white, yellow or rose gold starting at $240, with each letter beyond the first being an additional $60. However, she isn't the only one smitten. Though he was set to return home from his tour of the Caribbean Sunday, December 4, Prince Harry flew to Toronto to visit Markle, squeezing in a quick trip before he was expected back in London on Wednesday, December 7.

Things are heating up in this celebrity news! What are some ways to show you care about your partner when he/she is not there?

Cupid's Advice:

It's tough when you can't see your partner every day. However, it doesn't mean your love should go unnoticed. Cupid has some relationship advice for when you want to show your appreciation, even when they're not there:

1. Put your initials somewhere: Like Markle, your partner can be wrapped around your neck with their initials. It can be any piece of jewelry, their name on a t-shirt, or if you really want to, a tattoo. Just two letters can mean a lot, especially if there's a personal, emotional connection with them. Always have their initials close to your heart with a personal touch.

3. One call away: A call just to see how your partner's day went can mean a lot, especially if they can't wait to vent to you or share some exciting news. Talking on the phone shows you care about your partner and want to hear what they have to say. Plus, you get to hear their voice, which is very helpful if you can't see them.
