This celebrity couple is opening up about parenthood. How do you know your partner is cut out to be a parent?

Cupid's Advice:

Knowing how to be a parent doesn't come naturally. You're going to learn new things and make mistakes, but that's part of being a parent. Cupid has some parenting advice to make sure you and your partner are ready:

1. Stable relationship and stable mind: If your relationship is strong, and your partner shows that they are mature, strong and well-minded, then it's a sign they can be a parent. You don't want to bring a baby into the world if your relationship is on the rocks. You also want to make sure your partner can handle the tough times, like not sleeping or changing that stinky diaper.

2. They talk to you: Being a parent means communicating your needs and wants, as well as what you're thinking. If they can handle a discussion about having a baby, and can see a future where they're holding a baby in their arms and taking care of their little one, then that's another sign they are ready to take parenting on.
