It is now red carpet official! Hilary Duff and new boyfriend Matthew Koma made their first public appearance at Entertainment Weekly's pre-SAG Award party. The new celebrity couple coordinated matching black outfits and looked effortlessly chic while they partied the night away. According to a source from UsMagazine.com, the pair "had great chemistry" when they collaborated on Duff's 2015 Breathe In. Breathe Out. album, so it shouldn't be much of a surprise. The musically-inclined couple first made celebrity news earlier this month over their coffee date. “They were leaning in and laughing a lot. They had their arms linked and kissed at one point,” an insider told Us at the time; but this latest outing confirms that this celebrity couple is here to stay.

This new celebrity couple is making it official! What are some ways to debut your new relationship to family and friends?

Cupid’s Advice:

When you’ve finally found the one, the next step is to introduce them to the other important people in your life. It can be a nerve-racking experience, but it doesn’t have to be. Cupid is here to provide you with creative ideas on debuting your new relationship:

1. Send a cute picture: Nip all the questions in the bud by showing your family and friends pictures of your new beau. This will provide a face to the name you provide them. It also prepares them in regards to who they’ll be meeting soon.

2. Give them quizzes: If you don’t want to send pictures, you can provide clues to your family and friends, and let them guess. This little game works well if they already know the person you’re now dating.

3. Have a joint dinner: Of course the best way to debut your new relationship status is by doing it face-to-face. Kill two birds with one stone by having a dinner party and inviting your family, closest friends and new love.
