Cupid's Advice:

Like Ronnie and Malika, we all know how hard it is trying to make a failing relationship work. However, sometimes you need to know when enough is enough. Cupid's here to help with some relationship advice:

1. Your partner doesn't make time for you: A huge part of being in a relationship involves actually being together. They say distance makes the heart grow fonder, but if your significant other is constantly bailing on you it's a problem. If your partner isn't showing the initiative to see you, your relationship is headed towards failure.

2. When talking about the future starts arguments: If the thought of your future together constantly brings up negativity, your relationship is probably on the fritz. Growing together as a couple should be exciting, not scary. If your partner doesn't see a future with you, you shouldn't want to see a future with them either.

3. You're walking on egg shells: If you have to constantly tip-toe around your significant other with the fear that you may say or do something wrong to upset them, end it! You should always feel comfortable enough to be yourself around your partner. If that isn't the way your relationship has been going, your relationship is going nowhere fast.
