In latest celebrity news, we're still totally and completely unsure about the status of celebrity couple Jennifer Garner and Ben Affleck's marriage. Despite multiple claims that their celebrity divorce had been called off for the time being, the 44 year-old actress and film producer was seen walking about Los Angeles on Thursday, March 9, without her wedding ring. An insider close to Garner told UsMagazine.com that she's still considering going through with the divorce when the time is right, while a different insider close to Affleck, 44, told the magazine that the two are putting their divorce on hold because they've been getting along pretty well. The Daredevil co-stars are reportedly still living under the same roof for the sake of their three children since their split back in June 2015. Although the news of their rocky marriage is still relatively new, the duo has been going to couples therapy for years now.

We can't quite seem to keep up with this celebrity couple. How do you know when it's time to end a longtime marriage?

Cupid's Advice:

Breaking up is hard as it is, but what if it's ending a longtime marriage with someone you thought you'd spend the rest of your life with? How do you know when enough is enough? Cupid's here to help with some relationship advice:

1. You're too tired to keep fighting the truth: When all the negative signs you've been ignoring keep adding up, it will become completely overwhelming. If your sex life is a daily frustration, your loved one won't fight for you, and it's impossible to open up to them anymore it's time to take a minute and realize that you can't keep fighting the truth. Ask yourself, is this worth fighting for?
