There may be a new celebrity couple soon enough! What are some ways to keep your relationship under wraps?

Cupid’s Advice:

It’s hard getting yourself out back out there following a failed longtime relationship, especially if the tabloids are following your every move. How do you keep your relationship under wraps to avoid this? Cupid’s here with relationship advice:

1. Stay away from the PDA: The easiest way to get the news out there about your relationship is to indulge in some PDA in front of others. Because you never know who might see you while in public, stay away from any PDA while out and about. It’s the only sure-fire way to keep things under wraps.

2. Stay away from social media: Social media can be both a blessing and a curse. It’s obvious that you should keep your relationship off of your own social media, but it’s also important to keep an eye on friends who tend to get a little post-happy while out at social events. Tell them not to post anything with you and your new flame in it.

3. Seize date opportunities, but stay discrete: Of course you want to get to know your new partner, so you should absolutely go on dates. That being said, consider going to places you know none of your friends will be. If it's a restaurant you know your friends enjoy as well, choose something else. Or, consider going out of town, even if it's just to a neighboring one.
