When 2017 started, no one knew the over-lined lip trend would take a messy turn. Well, the makeup artists at MAC Cosmetics showed us that anything is possible with their experimental beauty trend that is now known as “lollipop lips.” MAC debuted this strange makeup look during London Fashion Week, and it has apparently taken off on social media with avant-garde beauty enthusiasts. Why would anyone try their hand at lollipop lips? It’s intended to mimic the appearance one might get after sucking on a lollipop- which gives off an “innocent” look. If you’re bold enough to try lollipop lips, here are a few beauty tips to help achieve this outlandish trend.

There's no need to apply your lip color perfectly with this latest beauty trend!

Runway ready: Any lip color works fine if you're going for a runway look, but an untraditional hue adds a fashion-forward edge. Take inspiration from aphrodisiacdeity on Instagram. She mastered this beauty trend with a lavender cream finish. The matching lavender eyebrow highlight and hair color complement the lip stain and pull the whole look together. Don't be afraid to heavy-handedly smudge your lip color if you want to look like MAC model.

Medium smudge: Go for a less messy look by using a bold lip color and smudging it out slightly in select areas. Beauty blogger umaimamehtab effortlessly shows us how to rock the lollipop look with her scarlet red lip gloss. The glossy finish reflects the light in an ethereal way and adds a level of chic to this youthful trend. Note how she mainly smudged the color around her top lip to create an ombré appearance.

Go subtle: If you're on the shier side, a barely-there lollipop look would suit you best. Youtube sensation Celia

Leslie shows us that smeared lipstick can be a cute addition to a makeup routine. She smudges her lip stain slightly above her natural lip line, giving off familiar over-lined vibes. Going lighter at the corners of the mouth make it look like you've worn your lip color a long time, and also adds dimension, making lips appear fuller.
