In celebrity news, it looks like we may not be able to watch Nick Viall and Vanessa Grimaldi's wedding on TV like we hoped we would! According to UsMagazine.com, 'Bachelor' alum Nick Viall spoke with Mario Lopez during Extra's Facebook Live segment on Tuesday, April 11th about why the celebrity couple is hesitant on televising their wedding. "Vanessa and I are just focused on our relationship," stated Viall. "When we decide it's time for us to take that next step, we're just going to plan a wedding, and if the show wants us, great, and if not ... We're not really focused on whether it's going to be televised or not." Whether or not the two end up televising their wedding or not, we couldn't be happier for them!

It doesn't look like there will be a televised celebrity wedding for this duo! What are some reasons behind keeping your wedding low-key?

Cupid's Advice:

Everyone wants to have the wedding of their dreams at one point or another. It doesn't have to be huge for it to be memorable! Why might it be a good idea to have your wedding be low-key? Cupid's here with relationship advice:

1. You save money: Weddings are usually expensive but they don't have to be. You don't have to spend thousands on your wedding to show you honey how much you love them. Besides, you could use that extra cash on a super romantic honeymoon!

2. It's more personal: If your wedding is low-key you won't have to entertain hundreds of guests. Having only your family and extremely close friends attend your wedding will make your day less stressful for you and your spouse-to-be. You'll be able to relax and enjoy the day with the ones you truly love!

3. It's more intimate for you and your guests: Now that you don't have to worry about running around to entertain hundreds of people, you and your spouse will be able to be more intimate with your guests. Because, what's better than genuine, personal conversations with the people you love on the best day of your life? Plus, you and your boo will actually be able to spend time together on your special day.
