It’s never easy to get along with an ex, but sometimes you have to make it work. If the two of you share a child, like Rob and Chyna, it’s very important that you sustain a civil relationship with one another. With this in mind, Cupid’s going to help make this transition an easier one with some relationship advice:

1. Seek balance: If you and your ex share children together it’s important to seek balance in your relationship with one another. Put your negative feelings aside and put your children first. This way, it’ll be easier for you and your ex to get along.

2. Stop bringing up the past: It’s only going to make being civil harder! The relationship is over so there’s no need to keep bringing up the factors that made it end. If you keep focusing on the negative, you’ll never reach the positive aspect of your “new” relationship the two of you are striving for.
